EXPLANATION – Matter in bolded italics is new; matter between brackets ~~omitted material~~ is material to be omitted.

AN ACT relating to domestic relations; authorizing a party in certain domestic relations actions to file a postjudgment motion to obtain adjudication of certain property and liabilities that were omitted from the final decree or judgment; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

1 Under existing law, in granting a divorce, a court must, to the extent 2 practicable, make an equal disposition of the community property of the parties, 3 unless the action is contrary to a valid premarital agreement between the parties or 4 the court makes written findings setting forth a compelling reason for making an 5 unequal disposition of the community property. (NRS 125.150) The Nevada 6 Supreme Court has held that under Rule 60(b) of the Nevada Rules of Civil 7 Procedure, relief from a divorce decree dividing community property between the 8 parties may be obtained by: (1) filing within 6 months after the final decree a 9 motion for relief or modification from the decree because of mistake, newly 10 discovered evidence or fraud; or (2) showing exceptional circumstances justifying 11 equitable relief in an independent civil action. (Kramer v. Kramer, 96 Nev. 759, 12 762 (1980); Amie v. Amie, 106 Nev. 541, 542 (1990)) In Doan v. Wilkerson, 130 13 Nev. Adv. Op. 48, 328 P.3d 498 (2014), the Nevada Supreme Court held that 14 exceptional circumstances justifying equitable relief do not exist when a particular 15 item of community property was disclosed and considered in a divorce action but 16 omitted from the divorce decree.

17 This bill authorizes a party in an action for divorce, separate maintenance or 18 annulment to file a postjudgment motion to obtain an adjudication of any 19 community property or liability that was omitted from the final decree or judgment.
20 This bill further provides that the court has continuing jurisdiction to hear such a 21 motion and must make an equal disposition of the omitted community property or 22 liability unless the court finds that certain exceptions apply.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1 Section 1. NRS 125.150 is hereby amended to read as follows:

2 125.150 Except as otherwise provided in NRS 125.155 and 3 unless the action is contrary to a premarital agreement between the 4 parties which is enforceable pursuant to chapter 123A of NRS:

5 1. In granting a divorce, the court:

6 (a) May award such alimony to the wife or to the husband, in a 7 specified principal sum or as specified periodic payments, as 8 appears just and equitable; and 9 (b) Shall, to the extent practicable, make an equal disposition of 10 the community property of the parties, except that the court may 11 make an unequal disposition of the community property in such 12 proportions as it deems just if the court finds a compelling reason to 13 do so and sets forth in writing the reasons for making the unequal 14 disposition.

15 2. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, in granting 16 a divorce, the court shall dispose of any property held in joint 17 tenancy in the manner set forth in subsection 1 for the disposition of 18 community property. If a party has made a contribution of separate 19 property to the acquisition or improvement of property held in joint 20 tenancy, the court may provide for the reimbursement of that party 21 for his or her contribution. The amount of reimbursement must not 22 exceed the amount of the contribution of separate property that can 23 be traced to the acquisition or improvement of property held in joint 24 tenancy, without interest or any adjustment because of an increase in 25 the value of the property held in joint tenancy. The amount of 26 reimbursement must not exceed the value, at the time of the 27 disposition, of the property held in joint tenancy for which the 28 contribution of separate property was made. In determining whether 29 to provide for the reimbursement, in whole or in part, of a party who 30 has contributed separate property, the court shall consider:

31 (a) The intention of the parties in placing the property in joint 32 tenancy;

33 (b) The length of the marriage; and

34 (c) Any other factor which the court deems relevant in making a 35 just and equitable disposition of that property.

36 ➤ As used in this subsection, "contribution" includes, without 37 limitation, a down payment, a payment for the acquisition or 38 improvement of property, and a payment reducing the principal of a 39 loan used to finance the purchase or improvement of property. The 40 term does not include a payment of interest on a loan used to finance 41 the purchase or improvement of property, or a payment made for 42 maintenance, insurance or taxes on property.

1 3. A party may file a postjudgment motion in any action for 2 divorce, annulment or separate maintenance to obtain 3 adjudication of any community property or liability omitted from 4 the decree or judgment. There is no limitation on the time in 5 which a motion pursuant to this subsection may be filed, except 6 that if the motion is based on fraud or mistake, the motion must be 7 filed within 3 years after the discovery by the aggrieved party of 8 the facts constituting the fraud or mistake. The court has 9 continuing jurisdiction to hear such a motion and shall equally 10 divide the omitted community property or liability between the 11 parties unless the court finds that:

12 (a) The community property or liability was included in a prior 13 equal disposition of the community property of the parties or in an 14 unequal disposition of the community property of the parties
15 which was made pursuant to written findings of a compelling 16 reason for making that unequal disposition; or

17 (b) The court determines a compelling reason in the interests
18 of justice to make an unequal disposition of the community 19 property or liability and sets forth in writing the reasons for 20 making the unequal disposition.

21 ↳ If a motion pursuant to this subsection results in a judgment 22 dividing a defined benefit pension plan, the judgment may not be 23 enforced against an installment payment made by the plan more 24 than 6 years after the installment payment.

25 4. Except as otherwise provided in NRS 125.141, whether or 26 not application for suit money has been made under the provisions 27 of NRS 125.040, the court may award a reasonable attorney's fee to 28 either party to an action for divorce.

29 ~~14-~~ 5. In granting a divorce, the court may also set apart such 30 portion of the husband's separate property for the wife's support, the 31 wife's separate property for the husband's support or the separate 32 property of either spouse for the support of their children as is 33 deemed just and equitable.

34 ~~15-~~ 6. In the event of the death of either party or the 35 subsequent remarriage of the spouse to whom specified periodic 36 payments were to be made, all the payments required by the decree 37 must cease, unless it was otherwise ordered by the court.

38 ~~16-~~ 7. If the court adjudicates the property rights of the 39 parties, or an agreement by the parties settling their property rights 40 has been approved by the court, whether or not the court has 41 retained jurisdiction to modify them, the adjudication of property 42 rights, and the agreements settling property rights, may nevertheless 43 at any time thereafter be modified by the court upon written 44 stipulation signed and acknowledged by the parties to the action, 45 and in accordance with the terms thereof.

1 ~~7-~~ 8. If a decree of divorce, or an agreement between the 2 parties which was ratified, adopted or approved in a decree of 3 divorce, provides for specified periodic payments of alimony, the 4 decree or agreement is not subject to modification by the court as to 5 accrued payments. Payments pursuant to a decree entered on or after 6 July 1, 1975, which have not accrued at the time a motion for 7 modification is filed may be modified upon a showing of changed
8 circumstances, whether or not the court has expressly retained 9 jurisdiction for the modification. In addition to any other factors the 10 court considers relevant in determining whether to modify the order, 11 the court shall consider whether the income of the spouse who is 12 ordered to pay alimony, as indicated on the spouse's federal income 13 tax return for the preceding calendar year, has been reduced to such 14 a level that the spouse is financially unable to pay the amount of 15 alimony the spouse has been ordered to pay.

16 ~~8-~~ 9. In addition to any other factors the court considers 17 relevant in determining whether to award alimony and the amount 18 of such an award, the court shall consider:

- 19 (a) The financial condition of each spouse;
- 20 (b) The nature and value of the respective property of each 21 spouse;
- 22 (c) The contribution of each spouse to any property held by the 23 spouses pursuant to NRS 123.030;
- 24 (d) The duration of the marriage;
- 25 (e) The income, earning capacity, age and health of each spouse;
- 26 (f) The standard of living during the marriage;
- 27 (g) The career before the marriage of the spouse who would 28 receive the alimony;
- 29 (h) The existence of specialized education or training or the 30 level of marketable skills attained by each spouse during the 31 marriage;
- 32 (i) The contribution of either spouse as homemaker;
- 33 (j) The award of property granted by the court in the divorce, 34 other than child support and alimony, to the spouse who would 35 receive the alimony; and
- 36 (k) The physical and mental condition of each party as it relates 37 to the financial condition, health and ability to work of that spouse.

38 ~~9-~~ 10. In granting a divorce, the court shall consider the need 39 to grant alimony to a spouse for the purpose of obtaining training or 40 education relating to a job, career or profession. In addition to any 41 other factors the court considers relevant in determining whether 42 such alimony should be granted, the court shall consider:

- 43 (a) Whether the spouse who would pay such alimony has 44 obtained greater job skills or education during the marriage; and

1 (b) Whether the spouse who would receive such alimony
2 provided financial support while the other spouse obtained job skills 3 or education.

4 ~~H0~~ 11. If the court determines that alimony should be 5 awarded pursuant to the provisions of subsection ~~9~~ 10:

6 (a) The court, in its order, shall provide for the time within 7 which the spouse who is the recipient of the alimony must 8 commence the training or education relating to a job, career or 9 profession.

10 (b) The spouse who is ordered to pay the alimony may, upon 11 changed circumstances, file a motion to modify the order.

12 (c) The spouse who is the recipient of the alimony may be 13 granted, in addition to any other alimony granted by the court, 14 money to provide for:

15 (1) Testing of the recipient's skills relating to a job, career or 16 profession;

17 (2) Evaluation of the recipient's abilities and goals relating to 18 a job, career or profession;

19 (3) Guidance for the recipient in establishing a specific plan 20 for training or education relating to a job, career or profession;

21 (4) Subsidization of an employer's costs incurred in training 22 the recipient;

23 (5) Assisting the recipient to search for a job; or

24 (6) Payment of the costs of tuition, books and fees for:

25 (I) The equivalent of a high school diploma;

26 (II) College courses which are directly applicable to the 27 recipient's goals for his or her career; or

28 (III) Courses of training in skills desirable for 29 employment.

30 ~~H1~~ 12. For the purposes of this section, a change of 20 31 percent or more in the gross monthly income of a spouse who is 32 ordered to pay alimony shall be deemed to constitute changed
33 circumstances requiring a review for modification of the payments 34 of alimony. As used in this subsection, "gross monthly income" has 35 the meaning ascribed to it in NRS 125B.070.
