22           (5) A notice of termination under section 10-32.1-51; and 23           (6) Articles of dissolution and termination under section 10-32.1-51; 24       b. Admitting a member under section 10-32.1-27; and 25       c. Dissolving under section 10-32.1-50.
26       3. A limited liability company that has or has had at least one member may ratify an act 27 or activity that occurred when the company lacked capacity under subsection 2.

28       10-32.1-09. Governing law.

29       The law of this state governs:

- 30       1. The internal affairs of a limited liability company; and

1       2. The liability of a member as member, a manager as manager, and a governor as 2           governor, for the debts, obligations, or other liabilities of a limited liability company.

3       10-32.1-10. Supplemental principles of law.

4       Unless displaced by particular provisions of this chapter, the principles of law and equity 5 supplement this chapter.

6       10-32.1-11. Limited liability company name.

7       1. The limited liability company name:

8           a. Must be expressed in letters or characters used in the English language as those 9           letters or characters appear in the American standard code for information 10          interchange table;

11          b. Must contain the words "limited liability company", or must contain the 12          abbreviation "L.L.C." or the abbreviation "LLC", either of which abbreviation may 13          be used interchangeably for all purposes authorized by this chapter, including 14          real estate matters, contracts, and filings with the secretary of state;

15          c. May not contain:

16           (1) The word "corporation", "incorporated", "limited partnership", "limited liability 17           partnership", "limited liability limited partnership", or any abbreviation of 18           these words; or

19           (2) The words "limited" or "company" without association to the words "limited 20           liability company" or the abbreviations of these words as provided in 21           subsection b;

22          d. May not contain a word or phrase that indicates or implies that the limited liability 23          company:

24           (1) Is organized for a purpose other than:

25           (a) A lawful business purpose for which a limited liability company may be 26           organized under this chapter; or

27           (b) For a purpose stated in its articles of organization; or 28           (2) May not be organized under this chapter; and 29          e. May not be the same as, or deceptively similar to:

- 1           (1) The name, whether foreign and authorized to do business in this state or 2           domestic, unless there is filed with the articles a record which complies with 3           subsection 3, of:
- 4           (a) Another limited liability company;
5           (b) A corporation;
6           (c) A limited partnership;
7           (d) A limited liability partnership; or 8           (e) A limited liability limited partnership;
- 9           (2) A name, the right of which is, at the time of organization, reserved in the 10          manner provided in section 10-19.1-14, 10-32.1-12, 10-33-11, 45-10.2-11, 11          45-13-04.2, or 45-22-05;
- 12          (3) A fictitious name registered in the manner provided in chapter 45-11; 13          (4) A trade name registered in the manner provided in chapter 47-25; or 14          (5) A trademark or service mark registered in the manner provided in chapter 15          47-22.
- 16          2. The secretary of state shall determine whether a limited liability company name is 17          deceptively similar to another name for purposes of this chapter.
- 18          3. If the secretary of state determines that a limited liability company name is deceptively 19          similar to another name for purposes of this chapter, then the limited liability company 20          name may not be used unless there is filed with the articles:
- 21           a. The written consent of the holder of the rights to the name to which the proposed 22           name has been determined to be deceptively similar; or
- 23           b. A certified copy of a judgment of a court in this state establishing the prior right of 24           the applicant to the use of the name in this state.
- 25          4. This section and section 10-32.1-12 do not:
- 26           a. Abrogate or limit:
- 27           (1) The law of unfair competition or unfair practices;
28           (2) Chapter 47-25;
29           (3) The laws of the United States with respect to the right to acquire and protect 30           copyrights, trade names, trademarks, service names, and service marks; or 31           (4) Any other rights to the exclusive use of names or symbols.

- 1           b. Derogate the common law or the principles of equity.
- 2           5. A domestic or foreign limited liability company that is the surviving organization in a 3 merger with one or more other organizations, or that acquires by sale, lease, or other 4 disposition to or exchange with an organization all or substantially all of the assets of 5 another organization including its name, may have the same name, subject to the 6 requirements of subsection 1, as that used in this state by any of the other 7 organizations, if the organization whose name is sought to be used:
- 8           a. Was organized, incorporated, formed, or registered under the laws of this state; 9           b. Is authorized to transact business or conduct activities in this state; 10          c. Holds a reserved name in the manner provided in section 10-19.1-14, 11           10-32.1-12, 10-33-11, 45-10.2-11, 45-13-04.2, or 45-22-05;
12          d. Holds a fictitious name registered in the manner provided in chapter 45-11; 13          e. Holds a trade name registered in the manner provided in chapter 47-25; or 14          f. Holds a trademark or service mark registered in the manner provided in chapter 15           47-22.
- 16          6. The use of a name by a limited liability company in violation of this section does not 17 affect or vitiate its limited liability company existence. However, a court in this state 18 may, upon application of the state or of an interested or affected person, enjoin the 19 limited liability company from doing business under a name assumed in violation of 20 this section, although its articles of organization may have been filed with the secretary 21 of state and a certificate of organization issued.
- 22          7. A limited liability company whose period of existence has expired or that is 23 involuntarily terminated by the secretary of state pursuant to section 10-32.1-89 may 24 reacquire the right to use that name by refiling articles of organization pursuant to 25 section 10-32.1-20, unless the name has been adopted for use or reserved by another 26 person, in which case the filing will be rejected unless the filing is accompanied by a 27 written consent or judgment pursuant to subsection 2. A limited liability company that 28 cannot reacquire the use of its limited liability company name shall adopt a new limited 29 liability company name which complies with the provisions of this section:
- 30           a. By refiling the articles of organization pursuant to section 10-32.1-20; 31           b. By amending pursuant to section 10-32.1-21; or

- 1           c. By reinstating pursuant to section 10-32.1-91.
- 2           8. Subject to section 10-32.1-73, this section applies to any foreign limited liability 3           company transacting business in this state, having a certificate of authority to transact 4           business in this state, or applying for a certificate of authority.
- 5           9. An amendment that only changes the name of the limited liability company may be 6           authorized by a resolution approved by the board and may, but need not, be submitted 7           to and approved by the members as provided in subdivision b of subsection 1 of 8           section 10-32.1-21.
- 9           10. A limited liability company that files its articles of organization with an effective date 10           later than the date of filing as provided in subdivision b of subsection 2 of section 11           10-32.1-20 shall maintain the right to the name until the effective date.

12           10-32.1-12. Reserved name.

- 13           1. The exclusive right to the use of a limited liability company name otherwise permitted 14           by section 10-32.1-11 may be reserved by any person.
- 15           2. The reservation is made by filing a request with the secretary of state that the name be 16           reserved together with the fees provided in section 10-32.1-92.
- 17           a. If the name is available for use by the applicant, then the secretary of state shall 18           reserve the name for the exclusive use of the applicant for a period of twelve 19           months.
- 20           b. The reservation may be renewed for successive twelve-month periods.
- 21           3. The right to the exclusive use of a limited liability company name reserved pursuant to 22           this section may be transferred to another person by or on behalf of the applicant for 23           whom the name was reserved by filing with the secretary of state a notice of the 24           transfer and specifying the name and address of the transferee together with the fees 25           provided in section 10-32.1-92.
- 26           4. The right to the exclusive use of a limited liability company name reserved pursuant to 27           this section may be canceled by or on behalf of the applicant for whom the name was 28           reserved by filing with the secretary of state a notice of the cancellation together with 29           the fees provided in section 10-32.1-92.
- 30           5. The secretary of state may destroy all reserved name requests and index thereof one 31           year after expiration.

1        10-32.1-13. Operating agreement - Scope - Function - Limitations.

2        1. Except as otherwise provided in subsections 2 and 3, the operating agreement 3        governs:

4        a. Relations among the members as members and between the members and the 5        limited liability company;

6        b. The rights and duties under this chapter of a person in the capacity of manager 7        or governor;

8        c. The activities of the company and the conduct of those activities; and 9        d. The means and conditions for amending the operating agreement.

10       2. To the extent the operating agreement does not otherwise provide for a matter 11       described in subsection 1, this chapter governs the matter.

12       3. An operating agreement may not:

13       a. Vary the capacity of a limited liability company under section 10-32.1-08 to sue 14       and be sued in its own name;

15       b. Vary the law applicable under section 10-32.1-09;

16       c. Vary the power of the court under section 10-32.1-22;

17       d. Subject to subsections 4 through 7, eliminate the duty of loyalty, the duty of care, 18       or any other fiduciary duty;

19       e. Subject to subsections 4 through 7, eliminate the contractual obligation of good 20       faith and fair dealing under subsection 4 of section 10-32.1-41;

21       f. Unreasonably restrict the duties and rights stated in section 10-32.1-42;

22       g. Vary the power of a court to decree dissolution in the circumstances specified in 23       subdivisions d and e of subsection 1 of section 10-32.1-50;

24       h. Vary the requirement to wind up the business of a limited liability company as 25       specified in subsection 1 and subdivision a of subsection 2 of section 10-32.1-51;

26       i. Unreasonably restrict the right of a member to maintain an action under sections 27       10-32.1-33 through 10-32.1-38;

28       j. Restrict the right to approve a merger, conversion, or domestication under 29       section 10-32.1-71 to a member that will have personal liability with respect to a 30       surviving, converted, or domesticated organization; or

- 1           k. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2 of section 10-32.1-15, restrict the 2                 rights under this chapter of a person other than a member, manager, or governor.
- 3       4. If not manifestly unreasonable, and without limiting the terms that may be included in 4         an operating agreement, the operating agreement may:
- 5       a. Restrict or eliminate the duty:
- 6           (1) As required in subdivision a of subsection 2 and in subsection 7 of section 7                 10-32.1-41, to account to the limited liability company and to hold as trustee 8                 for it any property, profit, or benefit derived by the member in the conduct or 9                 winding up of the company's business, from a use by the member of the 10                company's property, or from the appropriation of a limited liability company 11                opportunity;
- 12          (2) As required in subdivision b of subsection 2 and in subsection 7 of section 13                 10-32.1-41, to refrain from dealing with the company in the conduct or 14                 winding up of the company's business as or on behalf of a party having an 15                 interest adverse to the company; and
- 16          (3) As required by subdivision c of subsection 2 and in subsection 7 of section 17                 10-32.1-41, to refrain from competing with the company in the conduct of 18                 the business of the company before the dissolution of the company;
- 19       b. Identify specific types or categories of activities that do not violate the duty of 20                 loyalty;
- 21       c. Alter the duty of care, except to authorize intentional misconduct or knowing 22                 violation of law;
- 23       d. Alter any other fiduciary duty, including eliminating particular aspects of that duty; 24                 and
- 25       e. Prescribe the standards by which to measure the performance of the contractual 26                 obligation of good faith and fair dealing under subsection 4 of section 10-32.1-41.
- 27       5. The operating agreement may specify the method by which a specific act or 28                 transaction that would otherwise violate the duty of loyalty may be authorized or 29                 ratified by one or more disinterested and independent persons after full disclosure of 30                 all material facts.

1       6. To the extent the operating agreement of a member-managed limited liability company 2       expressly relieves a member of a responsibility that the member would otherwise have 3       under this chapter and imposes the responsibility on one or more other members, the 4       operating agreement may, to the benefit of the member that the operating agreement 5       relieves of the responsibility, also eliminate or limit any fiduciary duty that would have 6       pertained to the responsibility.

7       7. The operating agreement may alter or eliminate the indemnification for a member, 8       manager, or governor provided by subsection 1 of section 10-32.1-40, and may 9       eliminate or limit the liability of a member, manager, or governor to the limited liability 10      company and members for money damages, except for:

11      a. Breach of the duty of loyalty;

12      b. A financial benefit received by the member or manager to which the member or 13      manager is not entitled;

14      c. A breach of a duty under section 10-32.1-32;

15      d. Intentional infliction of harm on the company or a member; or 16      e. An intentional violation of criminal law.

17      8. The court shall decide any claim under subsection 4 that a term of an operating 18      agreement is manifestly unreasonable. The court:

19      a. Shall make its determination as of the time the challenged term became part of 20      the operating agreement and by considering only circumstances existing at that 21      time; and

22      b. May invalidate the term only if, in light of the purposes and activities of the limited 23      liability company, it is readily apparent that:

24          (1) The objective of the term is unreasonable; or 25          (2) The term is an unreasonable means to achieve the objective of the 26          provision.

27      10-32.1-14. Operating agreement effect on a limited liability company and persons 28      becoming members - Preformation agreement.

29      1. A limited liability company is bound by and may enforce the operating agreement, 30      whether or not the company has itself manifested assent to the operating agreement.

1       2. A person that becomes a member of a limited liability company is deemed to assent to 2       the operating agreement.

3       3. Two or more persons intending to become the initial members of a limited liability 4       company may make an agreement providing that upon the formation of the company 5       the agreement will become the operating agreement. One person intending to become 6       the initial member of a limited liability company may assent to terms providing that 7       upon the formation of the company the terms will become the operating agreement.

8       10-32.1-15. Operating agreement - Effect on third parties and relationship to records 9       effective on behalf of a limited liability company.

10      1. An operating agreement may specify that its amendment requires the approval of a 11      person that is not a party to the operating agreement or the satisfaction of a condition.
12      An amendment is ineffective if its adoption does not include the required approval or 13      satisfy the specified condition.

14      2. The obligations of a limited liability company and its members to a person in the 15      capacity of the person as a transferee or dissociated member are governed by the 16      operating agreement. Subject only to any court order issued under subdivision b of 17      subsection 2 of section 10-32.1-45, to effectuate a charging order, an amendment to 18      the operating agreement made after a person becomes a transferee or dissociated 19      member is effective with regard to any debt, obligation, or other liability of the limited 20      liability company or its members to the person in the capacity of the person as a 21      transferee or dissociated member.

22      3. If a record that has been delivered by a limited liability company to the secretary of 23      state for filing has become effective under this chapter and contains a provision that 24      would be ineffective under subsection 3 of section 10-32.1-13, if contained in the 25      operating agreement, then the provision is likewise ineffective in the record.

26      4. Subject to subsection 3, if a record that has been delivered by a limited liability 27      company to the secretary of state for filing has become effective under this chapter 28      and conflicts with a provision of the operating agreement, then:

29      a. The operating agreement prevails as to members, dissociated members, 30      transferees, managers, and governors; and

1           b. The record prevails as to other persons to the extent they reasonably rely on the 2           record.

3           10-32.1-16. Registered office and registered agent.

4           Every limited liability company shall have a registered office and a registered agent, in the 5           manner prescribed by chapter 10-01.1.

6           10-32.1-17. Change of registered office or registered agent.

7           Every limited liability company may change its registered office or change its registered 8           agent, and the agent may resign or change its business address or name, in the manner 9           prescribed by chapter 10-01.1.

10          10-32.1-18. Resignation of registered agent.

11          The registered agent of every limited liability company may resign in the manner prescribed 12          by chapter 10-01.1.

13          10-32.1-19. Service of process on a limited liability company, foreign limited liability 14          company, and nonresident managers and governors.

- 15          1. A registered agent appointed by a limited liability company or foreign limited liability 16          company is an agent of the company for service of any process, notice, or demand 17          required or permitted by law to be served on the company.
- 18          2. If a limited liability company or foreign limited liability company does not appoint or 19          maintain a registered agent in this state or if the registered agent with reasonable 20          diligence cannot be found at the address of the registered agent, then the secretary of 21          state is an agent of the company upon whom process, notice, or demand may be 22          served.
- 23          3. Any process, notice, or demand required or permitted by law to be served on the 24          limited liability company, the foreign limited liability company, a manager, a governor, 25          or a member of a member-managed limited liability company may be served upon the 26          secretary of state as provided in section 10-01.1-13.
- 27          4. This section does not affect the right to serve process, notice, or demand in any other 28          manner provided by law.

1        10-32.1-20. Formation of a limited liability company - Articles of organization.

2        1. One or more individuals of the age of eighteen years or more or other persons may act 3        as organizers to form a limited liability company by signing and filing with the secretary 4        of state articles of organization together with the fees provided in section 10-32.1-92.

5        2. The articles of organization:

6        a. Must state:

7            (1) The name of the limited liability company, which must comply with section 8            10-32.1-11;

9            (2) With respect to the registered agent:

10           (a) The name of the commercial registered agent of the limited liability 11           company as provided in chapter 10-01.1; or 12           (b) The name and address of a noncommercial registered agent in this 13           state as provided in chapter 10-01.1;

14           (c) The address of the principal executive office;

15           (d) The name and address of each organizer; and 16        b. May state an effective date of organization, which must not be later than ninety 17        days from the date of filing with the secretary of state.

18        3. Subject to subsection 3 of section 10-32.1-15, articles of organization may also 19        contain statements as to matters other than those required by subsection 2. However, 20        a statement in articles of organization is not effective as a statement of authority.

21        4. With respect to formation:

22        a. A limited liability company is formed when articles of organization have been filed 23        with the secretary of state or at a later date as specified in the articles of 24        organization.

25        b. If the secretary of state finds that the articles of organization conform to law and 26        that all fees have been paid under section 10-32.1-92, then the secretary of state 27        shall file the articles of organization and issue a certificate of organization to the 28        organizers or their representative.

29        c. Except as against this state in a proceeding to terminate or revoke the certificate 30        of organization or in a judicial proceeding pursuant to section 10-32.1-51, the 31        filing of the articles of organization by the secretary of state is conclusive proof

1           that the organizer satisfied all conditions to the formation of a limited liability 2           company.

3           d. The formation of a limited liability company does not by itself cause any person to 4           become a member. However, this chapter does not preclude an agreement, 5           made before or after formation of a limited liability company, which provides that 6           one or more persons will become members, or acknowledging that one or more 7           persons became members, upon or otherwise in connection with the formation of 8           the limited liability company.

9           10-32.1-21. Amendment or restatement of articles of organization.

10          1. Articles of organization may be amended or restated at any time.

11          a. Before any contribution is reflected in the required records of a limited liability 12          company, the articles of organization may be amended by the organizers or by 13          the board. The articles of organization may also be amended by the board to 14          establish or fix the rights and preferences of a class or series of membership 15          interests before any contribution pertaining to that class or series is reflected in 16          the records of the limited liability company by filing articles of amendment with 17          the secretary of state.

18          b. With respect to amendment after contribution:

19           (1) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision a, after any contribution has 20           been reflected in the records of a limited liability company, the articles of 21           organization may be amended in the manner set forth in this subdivision.

22           (2) A resolution approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of the governors 23           present, or proposed by a member or members owning five percent or more 24           of the voting power of the members entitled to vote, that sets forth the 25           proposed amendment must be submitted to a vote at the next regular or 26           special meeting of the members of which notice has not yet been given but 27           still can be timely given. Any number of amendments may be submitted to 28           the members and voted upon at one meeting, but the same or substantially 29           the same amendment proposed by a member or members need not be 30           submitted to the members or be voted upon at more than one meeting 31           during a fifteen-month period. The resolution may amend the articles of

- 1                   organization in their entirety to restate and supersede the original articles of 2                   organization and all amendments to them.
- 3                   (3) Written notice of the meeting of the members setting forth the substance of 4                   the proposed amendment must be given to each member entitled to vote in 5                   the manner provided in subsection 5 of section 10-32.1-39 for the giving of 6                   notice of meetings of members.
- 7                   (4) The proposed amendment is adopted:
- 8                   (a) When approved by the affirmative vote of the members required by 9                   section 10-32.1-39; or
- 10                  (b) If the articles of organization provide for a specified proportion equal 11                  to or larger than the majority necessary to transact a specified type of 12                  business at a meeting, or if it is proposed to amend the articles to 13                  provide for a specified proportion equal to or larger than the majority 14                  necessary to transact a specified type of business at a meeting, then 15                  the affirmative vote necessary to add the provision to, or to amend an 16                  existing provision in, the articles of organization is the larger of:
- 17                  [1] The specified proportion or number or, in the absence of a 18                  specific provision, the affirmative vote necessary to transact the 19                  type of business described in the proposed amendment at a 20                  meeting immediately before the effectiveness of the proposed 21                  amendment; or
- 22                  [2] The specified proportion or number that would, upon 23                  effectiveness of the proposed amendment, be necessary to 24                  transact the specified type of business at a meeting.
- 25                  2. To amend its articles of organization, a limited liability company must file with the 26                  secretary of state an amendment stating:
- 27                  a. The name of the company;
- 28                  b. The changes the amendment makes to the articles of organization as most 29                  recently amended or restated; and
- 30                  c. A statement that the amendment was adopted pursuant to this chapter.

- 1       3. If only a change of address of the principal executive office is required, then an 2       amendment need not be filed. However, the change of address of the principal 3       executive office must then be reported in the next annual report filed after the change 4       or be submitted in writing to the secretary of state without a filing fee.
- 5       4. To restate its articles of organization, a limited liability company must file with the 6       secretary of state a restatement, designated as such in its heading, stating:
- 7       a. In the heading or an introductory paragraph, the present name of the company; 8       and
- 9       b. The changes the restatement makes to the articles of organization as most 10       recently amended or restated, except that the name and address of each 11       organizer may be omitted.
- 12       5. Subject to subsection 3 of section 10-32.1-15 and subsection 3 of section 10-32.1-87, 13       an amendment to or restatement of articles of organization is effective when filed with 14       the secretary of state or at a later date as specified in the amendment to, or 15       restatement of, the articles of organization.
- 16       6. The owners of the outstanding transferable interests of a class or series are entitled to 17       vote as a class or series upon a proposed amendment to the articles of organization, 18       whether or not entitled to vote on the amendment by the provisions of the articles of 19       organization, if the amendment would:
- 20       a. Effect an exchange, reclassification, or cancellation of all or part of the 21       membership interests of the class or series, or effect a combination of 22       outstanding membership interests of a class or series into a lesser number of 23       membership interests of the class or series if each other class or series is not 24       subject to a similar combination;
- 25       b. Effect an exchange, or create a right of exchange, of all or any part of the 26       membership interests of another class or series for the membership interests of 27       the class or series;
- 28       c. Change the rights or preferences of the membership interests of the class or 29       series;
- 30       d. Create a new class or series of membership interests having rights and 31       preferences prior and superior to the membership interests of that class or series.

1                   or increase the rights and preferences or the number of membership interests, of 2                   a class or series having rights and preferences prior or superior to the 3                   membership interests of that class or series:

4           e.   Divide the membership interests of the class into series and determine the 5           designation of each series and the variations in the relative rights and 6           preferences between the membership interests of each series or authorize the 7           board to do so;

8           f.   Limit or deny any existing preemptive rights of the membership interests of the 9           class or series; or 10          g.   Cancel or otherwise affect distributions on the membership interests of the class 11          or series.

12        7.   With respect to the effect of the amendment:

13          a.   An amendment does not affect an existing cause of action in favor of or against 14          the limited liability company, nor a pending suit to which the limited liability 15          company is a party, nor the existing rights of persons other than members.

16          b.   If the limited liability company name is changed by the amendment, a suit 17          brought by or against the limited liability company under its former name does not 18          abate for that reason.

19          c.   An amendment restating the articles in their entirety supersedes the original 20          articles and all amendments to the original articles.

21        8.   If the secretary of state finds that the articles of amendment conform to law, and that 22          all fees have been paid as provided in section 10-32.1-92, then the articles of 23          amendment must be recorded in the office of the secretary of state.

24        9.   A limited liability company that amends its name and which is the owner of a service 25          mark, trademark, or trade name, is a general partner named in a fictitious name 26          certificate, is a general partner in a limited partnership or a limited liability limited 27          partnership, or is a managing partner of a limited liability partnership that is on file with 28          the secretary of state must change or amend the name of the limited liability company 29          in each registration when the limited liability company files an amendment.

30        10. With respect to the amendment of articles of organization in court-supervised 31          reorganization:

1           a. Whenever a plan of reorganization of a limited liability company has been 2           confirmed by decree or order of a court of competent jurisdiction in proceedings 3           for the reorganization of the limited liability company, pursuant to the provisions of 4           any applicable statute of the United States relating to reorganization of limited 5           liability companies, the articles may be amended, in the manner provided in this 6           section, in as many respects as may be necessary to carry out the plan and to 7           put it into effect, so long as the articles as amended contain only provisions which 8           might be lawfully contained in original articles of organization at the time of 9           making the amendment. In particular, and without limitation upon any general 10          power of amendment, the articles may be amended to:

- 11           (1) Change the limited liability company name, period of duration, or 12           organizational purposes of the limited liability company.
13           (2) Repeal, alter, or amend the bylaws of the limited liability company.
14           (3) Change the preferences, limitations, relative rights in respect of all or any 15           part of the membership interests of the limited liability company, and 16           classify, reclassify, or cancel all or any part thereof.
17           (4) Authorize the issuance of bonds, debentures, or other obligations of the 18           limited liability company, whether convertible into membership interests of 19           any class or bearing warrants or other evidence of optional rights to 20           purchase or subscribe for membership interests of any class, and fix the 21           terms and conditions thereof.
22           (5) Constitute or reconstitute and classify or reclassify the board and appoint 23           governors and managers in place of or in addition to all or any of the 24           governors or managers then in office.

25          b. Amendments to the articles pursuant to subdivision a must be made in the 26          following manner:

- 27           (1) Articles of amendment approved by decree or order of the court must be 28           signed and verified in duplicate by the person or persons designated or 29           appointed by the court for that purpose and must set forth the name of the 30           limited liability company, the amendments of the articles approved by the 31           court, the date of the decree or order approving the articles of amendment.

1                   the title of the proceedings in which the decree or order was entered by a 2                   court having jurisdiction of the proceedings for the reorganization of the 3                   limited liability company pursuant to the provisions of an applicable statute 4                   of the United States.

5                   (2) An original of the articles of amendment must be filed with the secretary of 6                   state. If the secretary of state finds that the articles of amendment conform 7                   to law, and that all fees have been paid as provided in section 10-32.1-92, 8                   then the articles of amendment must be recorded in the office of the 9                   secretary of state.

10                  c. The articles of amendment become effective upon their acceptance by the 11                  secretary of state or at any other time within ninety days after their acceptance if 12                  the articles of amendment so provide.

13                  d. The articles are deemed to be amended accordingly, without any action by the 14                  governors or members of the limited liability company and with the same effect as 15                  if the amendment had been adopted by the unanimous action provided for in 16                  section 10-32.1-39.

17                  10-32.1-22. Signing and filing pursuant to a judicial order.

18                  1. If a person required by this chapter to sign a record or file a record with the secretary 19                  of state does not do so, then any other person that is aggrieved may petition the 20                  appropriate court to order:

21                  a. The person to sign the record;

22                  b. The person to file the record with the secretary of state for filing; or 23                  c. The secretary of state to file the record unsigned.

24                  2. If a petitioner under subsection 1 is not the limited liability company or foreign limited 25                  liability company to which the record pertains, then the petitioner shall make the 26                  company a party to the action.

27                  10-32.1-23. No agency power of a member as a member.

28                  1. A member is not an agent of a limited liability company solely by reason of being a 29                  member.

1       2. The status of a person as a member does not prevent or restrict law other than this 2           chapter from imposing liability on a limited liability company because of the conduct of 3           the person.

4       10-32.1-24. Statement of authority.

5       1. A limited liability company may file with the secretary of state a statement of authority.

6           The statement:

7           a. Must include the name of the company and the address of its registered office;

8           b. With respect to any position that exists in or with respect to the company, may 9           state the authority, or limitations on the authority, of all persons holding the 10          position to:

11          (1) Execute an instrument transferring real property held in the name of the 12             company; or

13          (2) Enter into other transactions on behalf of, or otherwise act for or bind, the 14             company; and

15          c. May state the authority, or limitations on the authority, of a specific person to:

16          (1) Execute an instrument transferring real property held in the name of the 17             company; or

18          (2) Enter into other transactions on behalf of, or otherwise act for or bind, the 19             company.

20       2. To amend or cancel a statement of authority filed with the secretary of state under 21       subsection 1 of section 10-32.1-86, a limited liability company must file with the 22       secretary of state an amendment or cancellation stating:

23           a. The name of the company;

24           b. The address of its registered office;

25           c. The caption of the statement being amended or canceled and the date the 26           statement being affected became effective; and 27           d. The contents of the amendment or a declaration that the statement being 28           affected is canceled.

29       3. A statement of authority affects only the power of a person to bind a limited liability 30       company to persons that are not members.

- 1       4. Subject to subsection 4 of section 10-32.1-04 and to subsection 3, and except as 2       otherwise provided in subsections 6, 7, and 8, a limitation on the authority of a person 3       or a position contained in an effective statement of authority is not by itself evidence of 4       knowledge or notice of the limitation by any person.
- 5       5. Subject to subsection 3, a grant of authority not pertaining to transfers of real property 6       and contained in an effective statement of authority is conclusive in favor of a person 7       that gives value in reliance on the grant, except to the extent that when the person 8       gives value:
- 9       a. The person has knowledge to the contrary;
- 10      b. The statement has been canceled or restrictively amended under subsection 2; 11      or
- 12      c. A limitation on the grant is contained in another statement of authority that 13      became effective after the statement containing the grant became effective.
- 14      6. Subject to subsection 3, an effective statement of authority that grants authority to 15      transfer real property held in the name of the limited liability company, whether or not a 16      certified copy of the statement is recorded in the real property records, is conclusive in 17      favor of a person that gives value in reliance on the grant without knowledge to the 18      contrary, except to the extent that when the person gives value:
- 19      a. The statement has been canceled or restrictively amended under subsection 2 20      and a certified copy of the cancellation or restrictive amendment has been 21      recorded in the real property records; or
- 22      b. A limitation on the grant is contained in another statement of authority that 23      became effective after the statement containing the grant became effective and a 24      certified copy of the later-effective statement is recorded in the real property 25      records.
- 26      7. Subject to subsection 3, if a certified copy of an effective statement containing a 27      limitation on the authority to transfer real property held in the name of a limited liability 28      company is recorded in the real property records, then all persons are deemed to 29      know of the limitation.

1       8. Subject to subsection 9, an effective notice of dissolution is a cancellation of any filed 2       statement of authority for the purposes of subsection 6 and is a limitation on authority 3       for the purposes of subsection 7.

4       9. After a notice of dissolution becomes effective, a limited liability company may file with 5       the secretary of state and, if appropriate, may record in the real property records, a 6       statement of authority that is designated as a postdissolution statement of authority.
7       The statement operates as provided in subsections 6 and 7.

8       10. An effective statement of denial operates as a restrictive amendment under this 9       section and may be recorded by certified copy in the real property records for the 10      purposes of subdivision a of subsection 6.

11      10-32.1-25. Statement of denial.

12      A person named in a filed statement of authority granting that person authority may file with 13      the secretary of state for filing a statement of denial that:

14      1. Provides the name of the limited liability company and the caption of the statement of 15      authority to which the statement of denial pertains; and 16      2. Denies the grant of authority.

17      10-32.1-26. Liability of members, managers, and governors.

18      1. The debts, obligations, or other liabilities of a limited liability company, whether arising 19      in contract, tort, or otherwise:

20      a. Are solely the debts, obligations, or other liabilities of the company; and 21      b. Do not become the debts, obligations, or other liabilities of a member, manager, 22      or governor solely by reason of the member acting as a member, manager acting 23      as a manager, or governor acting as a governor.

24      2. The failure of a limited liability company to observe formalities relating exclusively to 25      the management of its internal affairs is not a ground for imposing liability on the 26      members, managers, or governors for the debts, obligations, or other liabilities of the 27      company.

28      3. Except as relates to the failure of a limited liability company to observe any formalities 29      relating exclusively to the management of its internal affairs, the case law that states 30      the conditions and circumstances under which the corporate veil of a corporation may 31      be pierced under North Dakota law also applies to limited liability companies.

1       10-32.1-27. Becoming a member.

- 2       1. If a limited liability company is to have only one member upon formation, then the 3       person becomes a member as agreed by that person and the organizer of the 4       company. That person and the organizer may be, but need not be, different persons. If 5       different, then the organizer acts on behalf of the initial member.
- 6       2. If a limited liability company is to have more than one member upon formation, then 7       those persons become members as agreed by the persons before the formation of the 8       company. The organizer acts on behalf of the persons in forming the company and 9       may be, but need not be, one of the persons.
- 10      3. A shelf limited liability company shall not be allowed under this chapter.
- 11      4. After a limited liability company has or has had at least one member, a person 12      becomes a member:
- 13          a. As provided in the operating agreement;
- 14          b. As the result of a transaction effective under sections 10-32.1-55 through 15             10-32.1-71;
- 16          c. With the consent of all the members; or
- 17          d. If, within ninety consecutive days after the company ceases to have any 18             members:
- 19              (1) The last person to have been a member, or the legal representative of that 20                 person, designates a person to become a member; and
- 21              (2) The designated person consents to become a member.
- 22      5. A person may become a member without acquiring a transferable interest and without 23      making or being obligated to make a contribution to the limited liability company.

24      10-32.1-28. Form of contribution.

25      A contribution may consist of tangible or intangible property or other benefit to a limited 26      liability company, including money, services performed, promissory notes, other agreements to 27      contribute money or property, and contracts for services to be performed.

28      10-32.1-29. Liability for contributions.

- 29      1. The obligation of a person to make a contribution to a limited liability company is not 30      excused by the death, disability, or other inability of the person to perform personally. If 31      a person does not make a required contribution, then the person or the estate of the 1           person is obligated to contribute money equal to the value of the part of the 2           contribution which has not been made, at the option of the company.

3           2. A creditor of a limited liability company which extends credit or otherwise acts in 4           reliance on an obligation described in subsection 1 may enforce the obligation.

5           10-32.1-30. Sharing of and right to distributions before dissolution.

6           1. Any distributions made by a limited liability company before its dissolution and winding 7           up must be in equal shares among members and dissociated members, except to the 8           extent necessary to comply with any transfer effective under section 10-32.1-44 and 9           any charging order in effect under section 10-32.1-45.

10          2. A person has a right to a distribution before the dissolution and winding up of a limited 11          liability company only if the company decides to make an interim distribution. The 12          dissociation of a person does not entitle the person to a distribution.

13          3. A person does not have a right to demand or receive a distribution from a limited 14          liability company in any form other than money. Except as otherwise provided in 15          subsection 3 of section 10-32.1-54, a limited liability company may distribute an asset 16          in kind if each part of the asset is fungible with each other part and each person 17          receives a percentage of the asset equal in value to the share of distributions of the 18          person.

19          4. If a member or transferee becomes entitled to receive a distribution, then the member 20          or transferee has the status of, and is entitled to all remedies available to, a creditor of 21          the limited liability company with respect to the distribution.

22          10-32.1-31. Limitations on distribution.

23          1. A limited liability company may not make a distribution if after the distribution:

24                a. The company would not be able to pay its debts as they become due in the 25                ordinary course of the activities of the company; or 26                b. The total assets of the company would be less than the sum of its total liabilities 27                plus the amount that would be needed, if the company were to be dissolved, 28                wound up, and terminated at the time of the distribution, to satisfy the preferential 29                rights upon dissolution, winding up, and termination of members whose 30                preferential rights are superior to those of persons receiving the distribution.

- 1       2. A limited liability company may base a determination that a distribution is not 2       prohibited under subsection 1 on financial statements prepared on the basis of 3       accounting practices and principles that are reasonable in the circumstances or on a 4       fair valuation or other method that is reasonable under the circumstances.
- 5       3. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 6, the effect of a distribution under 6       subsection 1 is measured:
- 7       a. In the case of a distribution by purchase, redemption, or other acquisition of a 8       transferable interest in the company, as of the date money or other property is 9       transferred or debt incurred by the company; and
- 10      b. In all other cases, as of the date:
- 11      (1) The distribution is authorized, if the payment occurs within one hundred 12      twenty days after that date; or
- 13      (2) The payment is made, if the payment occurs more than one hundred twenty 14      days after the distribution is authorized.
- 15      4. The indebtedness of a limited liability company to a member incurred by reason of a 16      distribution made according to this section is at parity with the indebtedness of the 17      company to its general, unsecured creditors.
- 18      5. The indebtedness of a limited liability company, including indebtedness issued in 19      connection with or as part of a distribution, is not a liability for purposes of 20      subsection 1 if the terms of the indebtedness provide that payment of principal and 21      interest are made only to the extent that a distribution could be made to members 22      under this section.
- 23      6. If indebtedness is issued as a distribution, then each payment of principal or interest 24      on the indebtedness is treated as a distribution, the effect of which is measured on the 25      date the payment is made.
- 26      7. In subsection 1, "distribution" does not include amounts constituting reasonable 27      compensation for present or past services or reasonable payments made in the 28      ordinary course of business under a bona fide retirement plan or other benefits 29      program.

1       10-32.1-32. Liability for improper distributions.

- 2       1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, if a member of a member-managed 3       limited liability company, manager of a manager-managed limited liability company, or 4       governor of a board-managed limited liability company consents to a distribution made 5       in violation of section 10-32.1-31 and in consenting to the distribution fails to comply 6       with section 10-32.1-41, then the member, manager, or governor is personally liable to 7       the company for the amount of the distribution that exceeds the amount that could 8       have been distributed without the violation of section 10-32.1-31.
- 9       2. To the extent the operating agreement of a member-managed limited liability company 10       expressly relieves a member of the authority and responsibility to consent to 11       distributions and imposes that authority and responsibility on one or more other 12       members, the liability stated in subsection 1 applies to the other members and not the 13       member that the operating agreement relieves of authority and responsibility.
- 14       3. A person that receives a distribution knowing that the distribution to that person was 15       made in violation of section 10-32.1-31 is personally liable to the limited liability 16       company but only to the extent that the distribution received by the person exceeded 17       the amount that could have been properly paid under section 10-32.1-31.
- 18       4. A person against which an action is commenced because the person is liable under 19       subsection 1 may:
- 20       a. Implead any other person that is subject to liability under subsection 1 and seek 21       to compel pro rata contribution from the person in that action to the extent of the 22       liability of the person as provided in subsection 1; and
- 23       b. Implead any person that received a distribution in violation of section 10-32.1-31 24       and seek to compel contribution from the person in the amount by which the 25       distribution received by the person exceeded the amount that could have been 26       properly paid under section 10-32.1-31.
- 27       5. An action under this section is barred if not commenced within two years after the 28       distribution.

29       10-32.1-33. Direct action by a member.

- 30       1. Subject to subsection 2, a member may maintain a direct action against another 31       member, a manager, a governor, or the limited liability company to enforce the rights of

1           the member and otherwise protect the interests of the member, including rights and 2           interests under the operating agreement or this chapter or arising independently of the 3           membership relationship.

4           2. A member maintaining a direct action under this section must plead and prove an 5           actual or threatened injury that is not solely the result of an injury suffered or 6           threatened to be suffered by the limited liability company.

7           10-32.1-34. Derivative action.

8           A member may maintain a derivative action to enforce a right of a limited liability company 9           if:

10          1. The member first makes a demand on the other members in a member-managed 11          limited liability company, the managers of a manager-managed limited liability 12          company, or the board of governors of a board-managed limited liability company 13          requesting that they cause the company to bring an action to enforce the right, and the 14          member or board does not bring the action within a reasonable time; or 15          2. A demand under subsection 1 would be futile.

16          10-32.1-35. Proper plaintiff.

17          1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, a derivative action under section 18          10-32.1-34 may be maintained only by a person that is a member at the time the 19          action is commenced and remains a member while the action continues.

20          2. If the sole plaintiff in a derivative action dies while the action is pending, then the court 21          may permit another member of the limited liability company to be substituted as 22          plaintiff.

23          10-32.1-36. Pleading.

24          In a derivative action under section 10-32.1-34, the complaint must state with particularity:

25          1. The date and content of the demand of the plaintiff and the response to the demand 26          by the other members, managers, or board of governors; or

27          2. If a demand has not been made, the reasons a demand under subsection 1 of section 28          10-32.1-34, would be futile.

29          10-32.1-37. Special litigation committee.

30          1. If a limited liability company is named as or made a party in a derivative proceeding, 31          then the company may appoint a special litigation committee to investigate the claims

1 asserted in the proceeding and determine whether pursuing the action is in the best 2 interests of the company. If the company appoints a special litigation committee, then 3 on motion by the committee made in the name of the company, except for good cause 4 shown, the court shall stay discovery for the time reasonably necessary to permit the 5 committee to make its investigation. This subsection does not prevent the court from 6 enforcing the right of a person to information under section 10-32.1-42 or, for good 7 cause shown, granting extraordinary relief in the form of a temporary restraining order 8 or preliminary injunction.

9 2. A special litigation committee may be composed of one or more disinterested and 10 independent individuals, who may be members.

11 3. A special litigation committee may be appointed:

12 a. In a member-managed limited liability company:

13 (1) By the consent of a majority of the members not named as defendants or 14 plaintiffs in the proceeding; and 15 (2) If all members are named as defendants or plaintiffs in the proceeding, then 16 by a majority of the members named as defendants;

17 b. In a manager-managed limited liability company:

18 (1) By a majority of the managers not named as defendants or plaintiffs in the 19 proceeding; and

20 (2) If all managers are named as defendants or plaintiffs in the proceeding, then 21 by a majority of the managers named as defendants; and 22 c. In a board-managed limited liability company:

23 (1) By a majority of governors not named as defendants or plaintiffs in the 24 proceeding; and

25 (2) If all governors are named as defendants or plaintiffs in the proceeding, then 26 by a majority of the governors named as defendants.

27 4. After appropriate investigation, a special litigation committee may determine that it is in 28 the best interests of the limited liability company that the proceeding:

29 a. Continue under the control of the plaintiff;

30 b. Continue under the control of the committee;

31 c. Be settled on terms approved by the committee; or 1           d. Be dismissed.

2           5. After making a determination under subsection 4, a special litigation committee shall 3 file with the court a statement of its determination and its report supporting its 4 determination, giving notice to the plaintiff. The court shall determine whether the 5 members of the committee were disinterested and independent and whether the 6 committee conducted its investigation and made its recommendation in good faith, 7 independently, and with reasonable care, with the committee having the burden of 8 proof. If the court finds that the members of the committee were disinterested and 9 independent and that the committee acted in good faith, independently, and with 10 reasonable care, then the court shall enforce the determination of the committee.
11 Otherwise, the court shall dissolve the stay of discovery entered under subsection 1 12 and allow the action to proceed under the direction of the plaintiff.

13           10-32.1-38. Proceeds and expenses.

14           1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2:

15           a. Any proceeds or other benefits of a derivative action under section 10-32.1-34, 16 whether by judgment, compromise, or settlement, belong to the limited liability 17 company and not to the plaintiff; and 18           b. If the plaintiff receives any proceeds, then the plaintiff shall remit them 19 immediately to the company.

20           2. If a derivative action under section 10-32.1-34 is successful in whole or in part, then 21 the court may award the plaintiff reasonable expenses, including reasonable attorney 22 fees and costs, from the recovery of the limited liability company.

23           10-32.1-39. Management of a limited liability company.

24           1. A limited liability company is a member-managed limited liability company unless the 25 operating agreement:

26           a. Expressly provides that:

27           (1) The company is or will be "manager-managed" or "board-managed";

28           (2) The company is or will be "managed by managers" or "managed by a 29 board"; or

30           (3) Management of the company is or will be "vested in managers" or "vested in 31 a board"; or

- 1           b. Includes words of similar import.
- 2           2. In a member-managed limited liability company, the following rules apply:
- 3           a. The management and conduct of the company are vested in the members.
- 4           b. Each member has equal rights in the management and conduct of the activities 5           of the company.
- 6           c. A difference arising among members as to a matter in the ordinary course of the 7           activities of the company may be decided by a majority of the members.
- 8           d. An act outside the ordinary course of the activities of the company may be 9           undertaken only with the consent of all members.
- 10          e. The operating agreement may be amended only with the consent of all members.
- 11          3. In a manager-managed limited liability company, the following rules apply:
- 12          a. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this chapter, any matter relating to the 13          activities of the company is decided exclusively by the managers.
- 14          b. Each manager has equal rights in the management and conduct of the activities 15          of the company.
- 16          c. A difference arising among managers as to a matter in the ordinary course of the 17          activities of the company may be decided by a majority of the managers.
- 18          d. The consent of all members is required to:
- 19                (1) Sell, lease, exchange, or otherwise dispose of all, or substantially all, of the 20                property of the company, with or without the good will, outside the ordinary 21                course of the activities of the company;
- 22                (2) Approve a merger, conversion, or domestication under sections 10-32.1-55 23                through 10-32.1-71;
- 24                (3) Undertake any other act outside the ordinary course of the activities of the 25                company; or
- 26                (4) Amend the operating agreement.
- 27          e. A manager may be chosen at any time by the consent of a majority of the 28          members and remains a manager until a successor has been chosen, unless the 29          manager at an earlier time resigns, is removed, or dies, or, in the case of a 30          manager that is not an individual, terminates. A manager may be removed at any 31          time by the consent of a majority of the members without notice or cause.

- 1           f. A person need not be a member to be a manager, but the dissociation of a 2           member that is also a manager removes the person as a manager. If a person 3           that is both a manager and a member ceases to be a manager, that cessation 4           does not by itself dissociate the person as a member.
- 5           g. The ceasing of a person to be a manager does not discharge any debt, 6           obligation, or other liability to the limited liability company or members which the 7           person incurred while a manager.
- 8       4. In a board-managed limited liability company, the following rules apply:
- 9           a. The activities and affairs of a limited liability company are to be managed by and 10          under the direction of a board of governors, which shall consist of one or more 11          governors as determined by members holding a majority of the voting power of 12          the members. Except as specifically stated in this subsection and in subsection 5 13          of section 10-32.1-21 and subject to section 10-32.1-24:
- 14               (1) The board acts only through an act of the board; 15               (2) No individual governor has any right or power to act for the limited liability 16               company; and
- 17               (3) Only officers, managers, or other agents designated by the board or through 18               a process approved by the board have the right to act for the limited liability 19               company, and that right extends only to the extent consistent with the terms 20               of the designation.
- 21          b. A governor must be an individual. An individual need not be a member to be a 22          governor, but the dissociation of a member who is an individual and who also a 23          governor disqualifies the individual as a governor. If an individual who is both a 24          governor and a member ceases to be a governor, that cessation does not by 25          itself dissociate the individual as a member. The ceasing of an individual to be a 26          governor does not discharge any debt, obligation, or other liability to the limited 27          liability company or members which the individual incurred while a governor.
- 28          c. The method of election and any additional qualifications for governors will be as 29          determined by members holding a majority of the voting power of the members.
30          Governors are elected by a plurality of the voting power present and entitled to 1 vote on the election of governors at a duly called or held meeting at which a 2 quorum is present.

3 d. A member may waive notice of a meeting for the election of governors. The 4 waiver of notice by a member under this subdivision is effective whether given 5 before, at, or after the meeting, and whether given in a record, orally, or by 6 attendance. Attendance by a member at a meeting for election of governors is a 7 waiver of notice of that meeting, except where the member objects at the 8 beginning of the meeting to the transaction of business because the meeting is 9 not lawfully called or convened and does not participate in the meeting after the 10 objection.

11 e. Once elected, a governor holds office for the term for which the governor was 12 elected and until a successor is elected, or until the earlier death, resignation, 13 disqualification, or removal of the governor. A governor may resign at any time. A 14 governor may be removed at any time, without cause and without advance 15 notice, by a majority of the voting power of all of the members. The existence of 16 vacancies does not affect the power of the board to function if at least one 17 governor remains in office.

18 f. When a vacancy occurs, the limited liability company shall immediately notify all 19 members in a record of the vacancy, stating the cause of the vacancy and the 20 date the notice is sent. Within thirty days of that date, the members may fill the 21 vacancy in the same method the members may elect governors under 22 subdivision c. If the vacancy is not filled by the members under this subdivision, 23 then the vacancy may be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of the 24 remaining governors, even though less than a quorum.

25 g. The board shall meet from time to time as determined by members holding a 26 majority of the voting power of the members, at a place decided by the board. If 27 the day or date, time, and place of a board of governors meeting have been 28 provided in a board resolution, or announced at a previous meeting of the board 29 of governors, then no notice is required. Notice of an adjourned meeting need not 30 be given other than by announcement at the meeting at which adjournment is

1           taken. If notice is required for a meeting, then notice shall be made in the manner 2           stated in subdivision h.

3           h. A governor may call a board meeting by giving at least ten days' notice in a 4           record to all governors of the date, time, and place of the meeting. The notice 5           need not state the purpose of the meeting. As to each governor, the notice is 6           effective when given.

7           i. "Notice" shall be determined as provided in subsection 35 of section 10-32.1-02.

8           j. A governor may waive notice of a meeting of the board of governors. A waiver of 9           notice by a governor entitled to notice is effective whether given before, at, or 10          after the meeting, and whether given in a record, orally, or by attendance.
11          Attendance by a governor at a meeting is a waiver of notice of that meeting, 12          except where the governor objects at the beginning of the meeting to the 13          transaction of business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened 14          and does not participate in the meeting after the objection.

15          k. A majority of the governors currently holding office is a quorum for the transaction 16          of business. When a quorum is present at a duly called or held meeting of the 17          board, the vote of a majority of the directors present constitutes an act of the 18          board. If a quorum is present when a duly called or held meeting is convened, 19          then the governors present may continue to transact business until adjournment, 20          even though the withdrawal of a number of governors originally present leaves 21          less than the proportion or number otherwise required for a quorum.

22          l. Any meeting among governors may be conducted solely by one or more means 23          of remote communication through which all of the governors may participate with 24          each other during the meeting, if the number of governors participating in the 25          meeting would be sufficient to constitute a quorum. Participation in a meeting 26          through remote communication constitutes presence in person at the meeting.

27          m. A governor may participate in a board of governors meeting by means of remote 28          communication, through which the governor, other governors so participating, 29          and all governors physically present at the meeting may participate with each 30          other during the meeting. Participation in a meeting through remote 31          communication constitutes presence in person at the meeting.

- 1           n. An action required or permitted to be taken at a board meeting may be taken by 2           written action signed by the number of governors that would be required to take 3           the same action at a meeting of the board of governors at which all governors 4           were present. The written action is effective when signed by the required number 5           of governors, unless a different effective time is provided in the written action.
6           When written action is permitted to be taken by less than all governors, then all 7           governors must be notified immediately of its text and effective date. Failure to 8           provide the notice does not invalidate the written action. A governor who does not 9           sign or consent to the written action has no liability for the action or actions taken 10           by the written action.
- 11           o. If the board designates a person as "chief manager", "president", "chief executive 12           officer", or another title of similar import, then that person shall:
- 13           (1) Serve as an agent of the limited liability company at the will of the board, 14           without prejudice to any rights the person may have under a contract with 15           the limited liability company;
- 16           (2) Have general active management of the business of the limited liability 17           company, subject to the supervision and control of the board;
- 18           (3) See that all orders and resolutions of the board of governors are carried into 19           effect;
- 20           (4) Sign and deliver in the name of the limited liability company any deeds, 21           mortgages, bonds, contracts, or other instruments pertaining to the business 22           of the limited liability company, except in cases in which the authority to sign 23           and deliver is required by law to be exercised by another person or is 24           expressly delegated by the board of governors to some other officer or 25           agent of the limited liability company;
- 26           (5) Maintain records of and, whenever necessary, certify all proceedings of the 27           board of governors and the members; and
- 28           (6) Perform other duties prescribed by the board of governors.
- 29           p. If the board designates a person as "treasurer", "chief financial officer", or 30           another title of similar import, then that person shall:

- 1           (1) Serve as an agent of the limited liability company at the will of the board,
- 2                     without prejudice to any rights the person may have under a contract with
- 3                     the limited liability company;
- 4           (2) Keep accurate financial records for the limited liability company;
- 5           (3) Deposit all money, drafts, and checks in the name of and to the credit of the
- 6                     limited liability company in the banks and depositories designated by the
- 7                     board of governors;
- 8           (4) Endorse for deposit all notes, checks, and drafts received by the limited
- 9                     liability company as ordered by the board of governors, making proper
- 10                    vouchers for them;
- 11           (5) Disburse limited liability company funds and issue checks and drafts in the
- 12                    name of the limited liability company, as ordered by the board of governors;
- 13           (6) Give to the chief executive officer and the board of governors, whenever
- 14                    requested, an account of all transactions by the chief financial officer and of
- 15                    the financial condition of the limited liability company; and
- 16           (7) Perform other duties prescribed by the board of governors or by the chief
- 17                    executive officer.
- 18       q. The consent of all members is required to:
- 19           (1) Sell, lease, exchange, or otherwise dispose of all, or substantially all, of the
- 20                    property of the company, with or without the good will, outside the ordinary
- 21                    course of the activities of the company;
- 22           (2) Approve a merger, conversion, or domestication under sections 10-32.1-55
- 23                    through 10-32.1-71; and
- 24           (3) Amend the operating agreement.
- 25       r. For purposes of this subsection, each member possesses voting power in
- 26                    proportion to the interest of the member in then current profits of the limited
- 27                    liability company and a majority of the voting power of the members is a quorum
- 28                    at a meeting of the members.
- 29       5. Any member may demand a meeting of the members to take action requiring consent
- 30                    of members under this chapter upon not less than twenty days' notice to each member
- 31                    in a record of the date and time of the meeting. Any meeting held upon member notice

1           shall be held at the principal executive office of the limited liability company if located 2           within this state, and at the registered office if the principal executive office is not 3           located within the state. Any action requiring the consent of members under this 4           chapter may be taken or approved without a meeting by the written consent of the 5           members holding the voting power required to take such action at a duly called 6           meeting at which all members were present. A member may appoint a proxy or other 7           agent to consent or otherwise act for the member by signing an appointing record, 8           personally or by the agent of the member.

9           6. The dissolution of a limited liability company does not affect the applicability of this 10           section. However, a person that wrongfully causes dissolution of the company loses 11           the right to participate in management in any capacity.

12           7. This chapter does not entitle a member to remuneration for services performed for a 13           member-managed limited liability company, except for reasonable compensation for 14           services rendered in winding up the activities of the company.

15           10-32.1-40. Indemnification and insurance.

16           1. For purposes of this section, unless the context otherwise requires:

17           a. "Limited liability company" includes a domestic or foreign limited liability company 18           that was the predecessor of the limited liability company referred to in this section 19           in a merger or other transaction in which the existence of the predecessor 20           ceased upon consummation of the transaction.

21           b. "Official capacity" means:

22           (1) With respect to a member of a member-managed company, a manager of a 23           manager-managed company, or a governor of a board-managed company, 24           actions taken in that capacity;

25           (2) With respect to a person other than a member of a member-managed 26           company, a manager of a manager-managed company, or a governor of a 27           board-managed company:

28           (a) The elective or appointive office or position held by a manager or 29           officer, member of a committee of the board of governors;

30           (b) The employment relationship undertaken by an employee of the 31           limited liability company; or

- 1                   (c) The scope of the services provided by members of the limited liability 2                   company who provide services to the limited liability company; and 3           (3) With respect to a governor, manager, member, or employee of the limited 4           liability company who, while a member, governor, manager, or employee of 5           the limited liability company, is or was serving at the request of the limited 6           liability company or whose duties in that position involve or involved service 7           as a governor, director, manager, officer, member, partner, trustee, 8           employee, or agent of another organization or employee benefit plan, the 9           position of that person as a governor, director, manager, officer, member, 10           partner, trustee, employee, or agent, as the case may be, of the other 11           organization or employee benefit plan.
- 12           c. "Proceeding" means a threatened, pending, or completed civil, criminal, 13           administrative, arbitration, or investigative proceeding, including a proceeding by 14           or in the right of the limited liability company.
- 15           d. "Special legal counsel" means counsel who has not in the preceding five years:
16           (1) Represented the limited liability company or a related organization in a 17           capacity other than special legal counsel; or 18           (2) Represented a member, governor, manager, member of a committee of the 19           board of governors, or employee, or other person whose indemnification is 20           in issue.
- 21           2. With respect to indemnification:
- 22           a. Subject to the provisions of subsection 4, a limited liability company shall 23           indemnify a person made or threatened to be made a party to a proceeding by 24           reason of the former or present official capacity of the person against judgments, 25           penalties, fines, including, without limitation, excise taxes assessed against the 26           person with respect to an employee benefit plan, settlements, and reasonable 27           expenses, including attorney's fees and disbursements, incurred by the person in 28           connection with the proceeding, if, with respect to the acts or omissions of the 29           person complained of in the proceeding, the person:
- 30           (1) Has not been indemnified by another organization or employee benefit plan 31           for the same judgments, penalties, fines, including, without limitation, excise

- 1 taxes assessed against the person with respect to an employee benefit 2 plan, settlements, and reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees and 3 disbursements, incurred by the person in connection with the proceeding 4 with respect to the same acts or omissions;
- 5 (2) Acted in good faith;
6 (3) Received no improper personal benefit and complied with the duties stated 7 in sections 10-32.1-31 and 10-32.1-41, if applicable; 8 (4) In the case of a criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe 9 the conduct was unlawful; and
- 10 (5) In the case of acts or omissions occurring in the official capacity described 11 in paragraph 1 or 2 of subdivision b of subsection 1, reasonably believed 12 that the conduct was in the best interests of the limited liability company, or 13 in the case of acts or omissions occurring in the official capacity described 14 in paragraph 3 of subdivision b of subsection 1, reasonably believed that the 15 conduct was not opposed to the best interests of the limited liability 16 company. If the acts or omissions of the person complained of in the 17 proceeding relate to conduct as a director, officer, trustee, employee, or 18 agent of an employee benefit plan, then the conduct is not considered to be 19 opposed to the best interests of the limited liability company if the person 20 reasonably believed that the conduct was in the best interests of the 21 participants or beneficiaries of the employee benefit plan.
- 22 b. The termination of a proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or 23 upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent does not, of itself, establish that 24 the person did not meet the criteria set forth in this subsection.
- 25 3. Subject to the provisions of subsection 4, if a person is made or threatened to be 26 made a party to a proceeding, then the person is entitled, upon written request to the 27 limited liability company, to payment or reimbursement by the limited liability company 28 of reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees and disbursements, incurred by the 29 person in advance of the final disposition of the proceeding:
- 30 a. Upon receipt by the limited liability company of a written affirmation by the person 31 of a good faith belief that the criteria for indemnification in subsection 2 have

- 1           been satisfied and a written undertaking by the person to repay all amounts so 2           paid or reimbursed by the limited liability company, if it is ultimately determined 3           that the criteria for indemnification have not been satisfied; and
- 4           b. After a determination that the facts then known to those making the determination 5           would not preclude indemnification under this section.
- 6           c. The written undertaking required by subdivision a is an unlimited general 7           obligation of the person making it, but need not be secured and shall be accepted 8           without reference to financial ability to make the repayment.
- 9           4. The articles of organization or the operating agreement either may prohibit 10           indemnification or advances of expenses otherwise required by this section or may 11           impose conditions on indemnification or advances of expenses in addition to the 12           conditions contained in subsections 2 and 3, including, without limitation, monetary 13           limits on indemnification or advances of expenses, if the conditions apply equally to all 14           persons or to all persons within a given class. A prohibition or limit on indemnification 15           or advances may not apply to or affect the right of a person to indemnification or 16           advances of expenses with respect to any acts or omissions of the person occurring 17           before the effective date of a provision in the articles of organization, a member control 18           agreement, or the date of adoption of a provision in the bylaws establishing the 19           prohibition or limit on indemnification or advances.
- 20           5. This section does not require, or limit the ability of, a limited liability company to 21           reimburse expenses, including attorney fees and disbursements, incurred by a person 22           in connection with an appearance as a witness in a proceeding at a time when the 23           person has not been made or threatened to be made a party to a proceeding.
- 24           6. With respect to the determination of eligibility:
- 25           a. All determinations whether indemnification of a person is required because the 26           criteria in subsection 2 have been satisfied and whether a person is entitled to 27           payment or reimbursement of expenses in advance of the final disposition of a 28           proceeding as provided in subsection 3 must be made:
- 29           (1) In a board-managed limited liability company:

- 1                   (a) By the board of governors by a majority of a quorum, provided that 2                   governors who are, at the time, parties to the proceeding shall not be 3                   counted for determining either a majority or the presence of a quorum; 4                   (b) If a quorum under subparagraph a cannot be obtained, then by a 5                   majority of a committee of the board of governors, consisting solely of 6                   two or more governors not at the time parties to the proceeding, duly 7                   designated to act in the matter by a majority of the full board of 8                   governors including governors who are parties; and 9                   (c) If a determination is not made under subparagraph a or b, then by 10                  special legal counsel, selected either by a majority of the board of 11                  governors or a committee by vote pursuant to subparagraph a or b or, 12                  if the requisite quorum of the full board of governors cannot be 13                  obtained and the committee cannot be established, then by a majority 14                  of the full board of governors including governors who are parties; 15                  (2) In all other cases, then by the affirmative vote of the members, with each 16                  member having voting power in proportion to the member's interest in then 17                  current profits of the limited liability company, but the membership interests 18                  held by parties to the proceeding must not be counted in determining the 19                  presence of a quorum and are not considered to be present and entitled to 20                  vote on the determination; or 21                  (3) If an adverse determination is made under subparagraphs a or b, or if no 22                  determination is made under subparagraphs a or b then within sixty days 23                  after:
24                  (a) The later to occur of the termination of a proceeding or a written 25                  request for indemnification to the limited liability company; or 26                  (b) A written request for an advance of expenses, as the case may be, by 27                  a court in this state, which may be the same court in which the 28                  proceeding involving the liability of the person took place, upon 29                  application of the person and any notice which the court requires. The 30                  person seeking indemnification or payment or reimbursement of 31                  expenses pursuant to this subdivision has the burden of establishing

1                   that the person is entitled to indemnification or payment or 2                   reimbursement of expenses.

3           b. With respect to a person who is not, and was not at the time of the acts or 4           omissions complained of in the proceedings, a member, governor, manager, or 5           person possessing, directly or indirectly, the power to direct or cause the direction 6           of the management or policies of the limited liability company, the determination 7           whether indemnification of this person is required because the criteria set forth in 8           subsection 2 have been satisfied and whether this person is entitled to payment 9           or reimbursement of expenses in advance of the final disposition of a proceeding 10           as provided in subsection 3 may be made:

- 11           (1) In a board-managed limited liability company, by an annually appointed 12           committee of the board of governors, having at least one member who is a 13           governor, which committee shall report at least annually to the board of 14           governors concerning its actions; and 15           (2) In all other cases by a committee appointed annually by the members, 16           having at least one committee member who is a member of the limited 17           liability company, which committee shall report at least annually to the board 18           of governors concerning its actions.

19       7. A limited liability company may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of a 20       member, manager, or governor of the company against liability asserted against or 21       incurred by the member, manager, or governor in that capacity or arising from that 22       status even if, under subsection 7 of section 10-32.1-13, the operating agreement 23       could not eliminate or limit the liability of a person to the company for the conduct 24       giving rise to the liability and whether or not the limited liability company would have 25       been required to indemnify the person against the liability under this section.

26       8. A limited liability company that indemnifies or advances expenses to a person 27       according to this section in connection with a proceeding by or on behalf of the limited 28       liability company shall report to the members in writing the amount of the 29       indemnification or advance and to whom and on whose behalf it was paid not later 30       than the next meeting of members.

1       9. Nothing in this section must be construed to limit the power of the limited liability 2       company to indemnify persons other than a governor, manager, member, employee, or 3       member of a committee of the board of the limited liability company, by contract or 4       otherwise.

5       10-32.1-41. Standards of conduct for members, managers, and governors.

6       1. A member of a member-managed limited liability company owes to the company and, 7       subject to subsection 2 of section 10-32.1-33, the other members the fiduciary duties 8       of loyalty and care stated in subsections 2 and 3.

9       2. The duty of loyalty of a member in a member-managed limited liability company 10       includes the duties:

11       a. To account to the company and to hold as trustee for it any property, profit, or 12       benefit derived by the member:

13           (1) In the conduct or winding up of the activities of the company;

14           (2) From a use by the member of the property of the company; or 15           (3) From the appropriation of a limited liability company opportunity;

16       b. To refrain from dealing with the company in the conduct or winding up of the 17       activities of the company as or on behalf of a person having an interest adverse 18       to the company; and 19       c. To refrain from competing with the company in the conduct of the activities of the 20       company before the dissolution of the company.

21       3. Subject to the business judgment rule, the duty of care of a member of a 22       member-managed limited liability company in the conduct and winding up of the 23       activities of the company is to act with the care that a person in a like position would 24       reasonably exercise under similar circumstances and in a manner the member 25       reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the company. In discharging this 26       duty, a member may rely in good faith on opinions, reports, statements, or other 27       information provided by another person that the member reasonably believes is a 28       competent and reliable source for the information.

29       4. A member in a limited liability company shall discharge the duties of the member and 30       exercise any rights under this chapter or under the operating agreement consistently

- 1           with the contractual obligation of good faith and fair dealing, including acting in a 2           manner, in light of the operating agreement, that is honest, fair, and reasonable.
- 3        5. It is a defense to a claim under subdivision b of subsection 2, and any comparable 4           claim in equity or at common law that the transaction was fair to the limited liability 5           company.
- 6        6. All of the members of a member-managed limited liability company or a 7           manager-managed limited liability company may authorize or ratify, after full disclosure 8           of all material facts, a specific act or transaction that otherwise would violate the duty 9           of loyalty.
- 10       7. In a manager-managed limited liability company, the following rules apply:
- 11           a. Subsections 1, 2, 3, and 5 apply to the manager or managers and not the 12           members.
- 13           b. The duty stated under subdivision c of subsection 2 continues until winding up is 14           completed.
- 15           c. Subsection 4 applies to the members and managers.
- 16           d. Subsection 6 applies only to the members.
- 17           e. A member does not have any fiduciary duty to the company or to any other 18           member solely by reason of being a member.
- 19        8. In a board-managed limited liability company, the following rules apply:
- 20           a. Subsections 1, 2, 3, and 5 apply to the governors and not the members.
- 21           b. The duty stated under subdivision c of subsection 2 continues until winding up is 22           completed.
- 23           c. Subsection 4 applies to the members and governors.
- 24           d. Subsection 6 applies only to the members.
- 25           e. A member does not have any fiduciary duty to the company or to any other 26           member solely by reason of being a member.

27        10-32.1-42. Right of members, managers, governors, and dissociated members to 28 information.

- 29        1. In a member-managed limited liability company, the following rules apply:
- 30           a. On reasonable notice, a member may inspect and copy during regular business 31           hours, at a reasonable location specified by the company, any record maintained

1           by the company regarding the activities, financial condition, and other 2           circumstances of the company, to the extent the information is material to the 3           rights and duties of the member under the operating agreement or this chapter.

4           b. The company shall furnish to each member:

5           (1) Without demand, any information concerning the activities, financial 6           condition, and other circumstances of the company which the company 7           knows and is material to the proper exercise of the rights and duties of the 8           member under the operating agreement or this chapter, except to the extent 9           the company can establish that it reasonably believes the member already 10           knows the information; and 11           (2) On demand, any other information concerning the activities, financial 12           condition, and other circumstances of the company, except to the extent the 13           demand or information demanded is unreasonable or otherwise improper 14           under the circumstances.

15           c. The duty to furnish information under subdivision b also applies to each member 16           to the extent the member knows any of the information described in 17           subdivision b.

18           2. In a manager-managed limited liability company, the following rules apply:

19           a. The informational rights stated in subsection 1 and the duty stated in 20           subdivision c of subsection 1, apply to the managers or governors and not the 21           members.

22           b. During regular business hours and at a reasonable location specified by the 23           company, a member may obtain from the company and inspect and copy full 24           information regarding the activities, financial condition, and other circumstances 25           of the company as is just and reasonable if:

26           (1) The member seeks the information for a purpose material to the interest of 27           the member as a member;

28           (2) The member makes a demand in a record received by the company, 29           describing with reasonable particularity the information sought and the 30           purpose for seeking the information; and 31           (3) The information sought is directly connected to the purpose of the member.

- 1           c. Within ten days after receiving a demand pursuant to paragraph 3 of subdivision 2           b, the company shall in a record inform the member that made the demand:
3           (1) Of the information that the company will provide in response to the demand 4           and when and where the company will provide the information; and 5           (2) If the company declines to provide any demanded information, then the 6           reasons of the company for declining.
7           d. Whenever this chapter or an operating agreement provides for a member to give 8           or withhold consent to a matter, before the consent is given or withheld, the 9           company shall, without demand, provide the member with all information that is 10          known to the company and is material to the decision of the member.
11         3. On ten days' demand made in a record received by a limited liability company, a 12          dissociated member may have access to information to which the person was entitled 13          while a member if the information pertains to the period during which the person was a 14          member, the person seeks the information in good faith, and the person satisfies the 15          requirements imposed on a member by subdivision b of subsection 2. The company 16          shall respond to a demand made pursuant to this subsection in the manner provided in 17          subdivision c of subsection 2.
18         4. A limited liability company may charge a person that makes a demand under this 19          section the reasonable costs of copying, limited to the costs of labor and material.
20         5. A member or dissociated member may exercise rights under this section through an 21          agent or, in the case of an individual under legal disability, a legal representative. Any 22          restriction or condition imposed by the operating agreement or under subsection 7 23          applies both to the agent or legal representative and the member or dissociated 24          member.
25         6. The rights under this section do not extend to a person as transferee.
26         7. In addition to any restriction or condition stated in its operating agreement, a limited 27          liability company, as a matter within the ordinary course of its activities, may impose 28          reasonable restrictions and conditions on access to and use of information to be 29          furnished under this section, including designating information confidential and 30          imposing nondisclosure and safeguarding obligations on the recipient. In a dispute

1           concerning the reasonableness of a restriction under this subsection, the company 2           has the burden of proving reasonableness.

3           10-32.1-43. Nature of a transferable interest.

4           A transferable interest is personal property.

5           10-32.1-44. Transfer of a transferable interest.

6           1. A transfer, in whole or in part, of a transferable interest:

7           a. Is permissible;

8           b. Does not by itself cause the dissociation of a member or a dissolution and 9           winding up of the activities of the limited liability company; and 10          c. Subject to section 10-32.1-46, does not entitle the transferee to:

11           (1) Participate in the management or conduct of the activities of the company;

12           or

13           (2) Except as otherwise provided in subsection 3, have access to records or 14           other information concerning the activities of the company.

15          2. A transferee has the right to receive, in accordance with the transfer, distributions to 16           which the transferor would otherwise be entitled.

17          3. In a dissolution and winding up of a limited liability company, a transferee is entitled to 18           an account of the transactions of the company only from the date of dissolution.

19          4. A transferable interest may be evidenced by a certificate of the interest issued by the 20           limited liability company in a record, and, subject to this section, the interest 21           represented by the certificate may be transferred by a transfer of the certificate.

22          5. A limited liability company need not give effect to the rights of a transferee under this 23           section until the company has notice of the transfer.

24          6. A transfer of a transferable interest in violation of a restriction on transfer contained in 25           the operating agreement is ineffective as to a person having notice of the restriction at 26           the time of transfer.

27          7. Except as otherwise provided in subdivision b of subsection 4 of section 10-32.1-48, 28           when a member transfers a transferable interest, the transferor retains the rights of a 29           member other than the interest in distributions transferred and retains all duties and 30           obligations of a member.

1       8. When a member transfers a transferable interest to a person that becomes a member 2       with respect to the transferred interest, the transferee is liable for the obligations of the 3       member under section 10-32.1-29 and subsection 3 of section 10-32.1-32, known to 4       the transferee when the transferee becomes a member.

5       10-32.1-45. Charging order.

6       1. On application by a judgment creditor of a member or transferee, a court may enter a 7       charging order against the transferable interest of the judgment debtor for the 8       unsatisfied amount of the judgment. A charging order constitutes a lien on the 9       transferable interest of a judgment debtor and requires the limited liability company to 10      pay over to the person to which the charging order was issued any distribution that 11      would otherwise be paid to the judgment debtor.

12      2. To the extent necessary to effectuate the collection of distributions pursuant to a 13      charging order in effect under subsection 1, the court may:

14      a. Appoint a receiver of the distributions subject to the charging order, with the 15      power to make all inquiries the judgment debtor might have made; and 16      b. Make all other orders necessary to give effect to the charging order.

17      3. Upon a showing that distributions under a charging order will not pay the judgment 18      debt within a reasonable time, then the court may foreclose the lien and order the sale 19      of the transferable interest. The purchaser at the foreclosure sale obtains only the 20      transferable interest, does not thereby become a member, and is subject to section 21      10-32.1-44.

22      4. At any time before foreclosure under subsection 3, the member or transferee whose 23      transferable interest is subject to a charging order under subsection 1 may extinguish 24      the charging order by satisfying the judgment and filing a certified copy of the 25      satisfaction with the court that issued the charging order.

26      5. At any time before foreclosure under subsection 3, a limited liability company or one or 27      more members whose transferable interests are not subject to the charging order may 28      pay to the judgment creditor the full amount due under the judgment and thereby 29      succeed to the rights of the judgment creditor, including the charging order.

30      6. This chapter does not deprive any member or transferee of the benefit of any 31      exemption laws applicable to the transferable interest of the member or transferee.

1       7. This section provides the exclusive remedy by which a person seeking to enforce a 2           judgment against a member or transferee may, in the capacity of judgment creditor, 3           satisfy the judgment from the transferable interest of the judgment debtor.

4       10-32.1-46. Power of the personal representative of a deceased member.

5       If a member dies, then the personal representative of the deceased member or other legal 6 representative may exercise the rights of a transferee provided in subsection 3 of section 7 10-32.1-44, and, for the purposes of settling the estate, the rights of a current member under 8 section 10-32.1-42.

9       10-32.1-47. Power of a member to dissociate - Wrongful dissociation.

10      1. A person has the power to dissociate as a member at any time, rightfully or wrongfully, 11      by withdrawing as a member by express will under subsection 1 of section 10-32.1-48.

12      2. The dissociation of a person from a limited liability company is wrongful only if the 13      dissociation:

14      a. Is in breach of an express provision of the operating agreement; or 15      b. Occurs before the termination of the company and:

16          (1) The person withdraws as a member by express will;

17          (2) The person is expelled as a member by judicial order under subsection 5 of 18          section 10-32.1-48;

19          (3) The person is dissociated under subdivision a of subsection 7 of section 20          10-32.1-48, by becoming a debtor in bankruptcy; or 21          (4) In the case of a person that is not a trust other than a business trust, an 22          estate, or an individual, the person is expelled or otherwise dissociated as a 23          member because it willfully dissolved or terminated.

24      3. A person that wrongfully dissociates as a member is liable to the limited liability

9           d. The originating record of the domesticated company.

10       10-32.1-68. Action on a plan of domestication by a domesticating limited liability

20           the domestication:

- 7           f. If the domesticating company was a foreign limited liability company, then a 8           statement that the domestication was approved as required by the governing 9           statute of the other jurisdiction; and
- 10          g. If the domesticated company was a foreign limited liability company not 11          authorized to transact business in this state, then the address of an office that the

- 14          2. A domestication becomes effective:
- 15           a. When the articles of organization takes effect, if the domesticated company is a 16           limited liability company; and
- 17           b. According to the governing statute of the domesticated company, if the 18           domesticated organization is a foreign limited liability company.
- 19          10-32.1-70. Effect of domestication.
- 20          1. When a domestication takes effect:
- 21           a. The domesticated company is for all purposes the company that existed before 22           the domestication;
- 23           b. All property owned by the domesticating company remains vested in the 24           domesticated company;
- 25           c. All debts, obligations, or other liabilities of the domesticating company continue

2           conditions of the plan of domestication take effect; and
- 3           g. Except as otherwise agreed, the domestication does not dissolve a domesticating 4           limited liability company for the purposes of sections 10-32.1-50 through 5           10-32.1-54.
- 6        2. A domesticated company that is a foreign limited liability company consents to the 7        jurisdiction of the courts of this state to enforce any debt, obligation, or other liability 8        owed by the domesticating company if, before the domestication, the domesticating 9        company was subject to suit in this state on the debt, obligation, or other liability. A 10       domesticated company that is a foreign limited liability company and not authorized to 11       transact business in this state appoints the secretary of state as its agent for service of 12       process for purposes of enforcing a debt, obligation, or other liability under this 13       subsection. Service on the secretary of state under this subsection must be made in 14       the same manner and has the same consequences as in section 10-32.1-19.
- 15       3. If a limited liability company has adopted and approved a plan of domestication under 16       section 10-32.1-68 providing for the company to be domesticated in a foreign 17       jurisdiction, then a statement surrendering the articles of organization of the company 18       must be filed with the secretary of state setting forth:
- 19           a. The name of the company;
- 20           b. A statement that the articles of organization are being surrendered in connection

23           and
- 24           d. The jurisdiction of formation of the domesticated foreign limited liability company.

25        10-32.1-71. Restrictions on approval of mergers, exchanges, conversions, and 26        domestications.

- 27        1. If a member of a constituent, converting, or domesticating limited liability company will 28        have personal liability with respect to a surviving, constituent, converted, or 29        domesticated organization, then approval or amendment of a plan of merger, 30        exchange, conversion, or domestication is ineffective without the consent of the 31        member, unless:

- 1           a. The operating agreement of the company provides for approval of a merger, 2                     exchange, conversion, or domestication with the consent of fewer than all the 3                     members; and
- 4           b. The member has consented to the provision of the operating agreement.
- 5           2. A member does not give the consent required by subsection 1 merely by consenting to 6                     a provision of the operating agreement that permits the operating agreement to be 7                     amended with the consent of fewer than all the members.

8           10-32.1-72. Foreign limited liability company - Governing law.

- 9           1. The law of the state or other jurisdiction under which a foreign limited liability company 10                    is formed governs:
- 11           a. The internal affairs of the company; and
- 12           b. The liability of a member as member, a manager as manager, and a governor as 13                    governor for the debts, obligations, or other liabilities of the company.
- 14           2. A foreign limited liability company may not be denied a certificate of authority by 15                    reason of any difference between the law of the jurisdiction under which the company 16                    is formed and the law of this state.
- 17           3. A foreign limited liability company holding a valid certificate of authority in this state 18                    has no greater rights and privileges than a domestic limited liability company. A 19                    certificate of authority does not authorize a foreign limited liability company to engage 20                    in any business or exercise any power that a limited liability company may not engage 21                    in or exercise in this state.

22           10-32.1-73. Foreign limited liability company - Name.

- 23           A foreign limited liability company may apply for a certificate of authority under any name 24                    that would be available to a domestic limited liability company, whether or not the name is the 25                    name under which it is authorized in its jurisdiction of organization. A trade name must be 26                    registered as provided in chapter 47-25 when applying for the certificate of authority under a 27                    name other than the name as authorized in the jurisdiction of origin.

28           10-32.1-74. Foreign limited liability company - Admission of foreign limited liability 29           company - Transacting business - Obtaining licenses and permits.

- 30           A foreign limited liability company may not:

- 1       1. Transact business in this state or obtain any license or permit required by this state
- 2             until it has procured a certificate of authority from the secretary of state.
- 3       2. Transact in this state any business that is prohibited to a domestic limited liability
- 4             company organized under this chapter.
- 5       3. Be denied a certificate of authority because the laws of the state or country where the
- 6             limited liability company is organized differ from the laws of this state.

7       10-32.1-75. Foreign limited liability company - Application for a certificate of 8 authority.

- 9       1. An applicant for the certificate shall file with the secretary of state a certificate of status
- 10            from the filing office in the jurisdiction in which the foreign limited liability company is
- 11            organized and an application executed by an authorized person and setting forth:
- 12            a. The name of the foreign limited liability company and, if different, the name under
- 13               which it proposes to transact business in this state;
- 14            b. The jurisdiction of its organization;
- 15            c. With respect to a registered agent:
- 16               (1) The name of the commercial registered agent as required by chapter
- 17                 10-01.1; or

- 21               jurisdiction of its organization;
- 22            e. The purpose the foreign limited liability company proposes to pursue in
- 23               transacting its business in this state;
- 24            f. The names and addresses of the governors and managers of the foreign limited
- 25               liability company; and
- 26            g. Any additional information deemed appropriate by the secretary of state to
- 27               determine whether the foreign limited liability company is entitled to a certificate
- 28               of authority to transact business in this state.
- 29       2. The application must be accompanied by payment of the fees provided in section
- 30            10-32.1-92 together with a certificate of good standing or a certificate of existence duly

1           authenticated by the organizing officer of the state or country where the foreign limited 2           liability company is organized.

3           10-32.1-76. Foreign limited liability company - Issuance of a certificate of authority.

4           If the secretary of state finds that an application for a certificate of authority conforms to law 5           and all fees provided in section 10-32.1-92 have been paid, then the secretary of state shall:

10          10-32.1-77. Foreign limited liability company - Amendments to a certificate of 11          authority.

- 12          1. If any statement in the application for a certificate of authority by a foreign limited 13          liability company is false when made or if the foreign limited liability company changes 14          the name of the foreign limited liability company or purposes sought in this state, then 15          the foreign limited liability company promptly shall file with the secretary of state an 16          application for an amended certificate of authority executed by an authorized person 17          correcting the statement and in the case of a change in the name of the foreign limited 18          liability company, a certificate to that effect authenticated by the proper officer of the 19          state or country under the laws of which the foreign limited liability company is 20          organized.
- 21          2. In the case of a termination or merger, a foreign limited liability company that is not the 22          surviving organization need not file an application for an amended certificate of 23          authority but shall promptly file with the secretary of state a certificate to that effect 24          authenticated by the proper officer of the state or country under the laws of which the 25          foreign limited liability company is organized.
- 26          3. A foreign limited liability company that changes the name of the foreign limited liability 27          company and applies for an amended certificate of authority and that is the owner of a 28          service mark, trademark, or trade name, a general partner named in a fictitious name 29          certificate, a general partner in a limited partnership or a limited liability limited 30          partnership, or a managing partner in a limited liability partnership that is on file with 31          the secretary of state shall change the name of the foreign limited liability company in

1           each of the foregoing registrations which is applicable when the foreign limited liability 2           company files an application for an amended certificate of authority.

3           10-32.1-78. Foreign limited liability company - Registered agent - Registered office.

4           A foreign limited liability company authorized to transact business in this state shall 5           continuously maintain a registered agent and registered office in this state as provided in 6           chapter 10-01.1.

7           10-32.1-79. Foreign limited liability company - Merger of a foreign limited liability 8           company authorized to transact business in this state.

9           If a foreign limited liability company authorized to transact business in this state is a party to 10          a statutory merger permitted by the laws of the state or country under which the foreign limited 11          liability company is organized, and the limited liability company is not the surviving organization, 12          then the surviving organization shall, within thirty days after the merger becomes effective, file 13          with the secretary of state a certified statement of merger duly authenticated by the proper 14          officer of the state or country where the statutory merger was effected. Any foreign organization, 15          which is the surviving organization in a merger and which will continue to transact business in 16          this state, shall procure a certificate of authority if not previously authorized to transact business 17          in this state.

18          10-32.1-80. Foreign limited liability company - Conversion of a foreign limited liability 19          authorized to transact business in this state.

20          If a foreign limited liability company authorized to transact business in this state converts to 21          another organization permitted by its governing statute, then within thirty days after the 22          conversion becomes effective, the newly created organization resulting from the conversion 23          shall file with the secretary of state a certified statement of conversion duly authenticated by the 25          organization that is the converted organization in a conversion and which will continue to 26          transact business in this state shall obtain a certificate of authority or applicable registration in 27          accordance with the North Dakota governing statute applicable to the converted organization.

28          10-32.1-81. Foreign limited liability company - Certificate of withdrawal.

29          1. A foreign limited liability company authorized to transact business in this state may 18 withdrawal and the authority of the foreign limited liability company to transact 19 business in this state shall cease upon filing of the certificate.

20 10-32.1-82. Foreign limited liability company - Transactions not constituting 21 transacting business.

- 22 1. A foreign limited liability company shall not be considered to be transacting business in 23 this state for the purposes of this chapter solely by reason of carrying on in this state 24 any one or more of the following, including:
- 25 a. Maintaining or defending any action or suit or any administrative or arbitration 26 proceeding, or effecting the settlement thereof or the settlement of claims or

5           situated in this state, as executor of the will or administrator of the estate of any 7           the estate of any person;

- 8           f. Making, participating in, or investing in loans or creating, as borrower or lender,

- 18          3. This section does not apply in determining the contacts or activities that may subject a 19          foreign limited liability company to service of process, taxation, or regulation under law 20          of this state other than this chapter.

21          10-32.1-83. Foreign limited liability company - Service of process on a foreign limited

26          authority.

- 27          1. A foreign limited liability company transacting business in this state may not maintain 28          an action or proceeding in this state unless it has a certificate of authority to transact 29          business in this state.

- 1       2. The failure of a foreign limited liability company to have a certificate of authority to 2       transact business in this state does not impair the validity of a contract or act of the 3       company or prevent the company from defending an action or proceeding in this state.
- 4       3. A member, manager, or governor of a foreign limited liability company is not liable for 5       the debts, obligations, or other liabilities of the company solely because the company

- 7       4. If a foreign limited liability company transacts business in this state without a certificate 8       of authority or cancels its certificate of authority, then it appoints the secretary of state 9       as its agent for service of process for rights of action arising out of the transaction of 10      business in this state.
- 11      5. A foreign limited liability company that transacts business in this state without a valid 12      certificate of authority is subject to a civil penalty, payable to the state, not to exceed 16      subject to a civil penalty, payable to the state, not to exceed one thousand dollars.

- 17      6. The civil penalties set forth in subsection 5 may be recovered in an action brought 19      the court that a foreign limited liability company or any of its members, governors, or 20      agents have transacted business in this state in violation of this chapter, the court shall 21      issue, in addition to the imposition of a civil penalty, an injunction restraining the further 22      transaction of the business of the foreign limited liability company and the further 23      exercise of the rights and privileges of the foreign limited liability company in this state.

24      The foreign limited liability company must be enjoined from transacting business in this 25      state until all civil penalties plus any interest and court costs that the court may assess 26      have been paid and until the foreign limited liability company has otherwise complied 27      with the provisions of this chapter.

2       limited liability company, domestic or foreign, and to any manager, governor, or 3       member thereof, such interrogatories as may be reasonably necessary and proper to 9       such interrogatories must be full and complete and must be made in writing and 10      under oath.

- 11      b. If the interrogatories are directed:
- 12          (1) To an individual, then they must be answered by that individual; or 13          (2) To a limited liability company, then they must be answered by the persons

- 16      c. The secretary of state need not file any record to which such interrogatories 17      relate until such interrogatories have been answered, and not then if the answers 18      disclose that such record is not in conformity with the provisions of this chapter.
- 19      d. The secretary of state shall certify to the attorney general, for such action as the 5 permitted by the secretary of state, and be delivered to the secretary of state. If the 6 filing fees required by section 10-32.1-92 have been paid, then, unless the secretary of 7 state determines that a record does not comply with the filing requirements of this 8 chapter, the secretary of state shall file the record and for all records, except annual 9 reports, send an image of the filed record to the person who filed the record.

- 10       2. Upon request and payment of the fee provided in section 10-32.1-92, the secretary of 11 state shall send to the requester a certified copy of a requested record.
- 12       3. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, a record filed with the secretary of state 13 under this chapter may specify a delayed effective date which must be no later than 15 subsection 4 of section 10-32.1-20, and section 10-32.1-87, if the record does not 16 specify a delayed effective date, then a record filed with the secretary of state is 18 secretary of state of the date on the record.

19       10-32.1-87. Secretary of state - Liability for inaccurate information in a filed record.

- 20       1. If a record filed with the secretary of state under this chapter contains inaccurate

8       company expressly relieves a member of responsibility for maintaining the accuracy of 9       information contained in records filed with the secretary of state under this chapter and 10       imposes that responsibility on one or more other members, the liability stated in 11       subdivision b of subsection 1, applies to those other members and not to the member 12       that the operating agreement relieves of the responsibility.

13       3. An individual who signs a record authorized or required to be filed under this chapter 14       affirms under penalty of perjury that the information stated in the record is accurate.
