victim of the violation was a family or household member at the 467 time of the violation, any offense of violence if the alleged 468 victim of the offense was a family or household member at the 469 time of the commission of the offense, or any sexually oriented 470 offense if the alleged victim of the offense was a family or 471 household member at the time of the commission of the offense, 472 the complainant, the alleged victim, or a family or household 473 member of an alleged victim may file, or, if in an emergency the 474 alleged victim is unable to file, a person who made an arrest 475 for the alleged violation or offense under section 2935.03 of 476 the Revised Code may file on behalf of the alleged victim, a 477 motion that requests the issuance of a temporary protection 478 order as a pretrial condition of release of the alleged 479 offender, in addition to any bail set under Criminal Rule 46. 480
The motion shall be filed with the clerk of the court that has 481 jurisdiction of the case at any time after the filing of the 482 complaint. 483

(2) For purposes of section 2930.09 of the Revised Code, 484 the commission of a violation, offense of violence, or sexually 486 including all proceedings on a motion for a temporary protection 488 order, are critical stages of the case, and a victim may be 489 accompanied by a victim advocate or another person to provide 490 support to the victim as provided in that section. 491

(B) (1) The motion shall be prepared on a form that is 492 pursuant to its authority to issue such an order under section 506 2919.26 of the Revised Code. 507

motion, has been filed in this court charging the named 509 charged) in circumstances in which the victim was a family or 512 household member in violation of (section of the Revised Code 513 designating the specified violation, offense of violence, or 514 defendant with a violation of a municipal ordinance that is 516 substantially similar to (section of 517 the Revised Code designating the specified violation, offense of 518 family or household member. 520

I understand that I must appear before the court, at a 521 time set by the court within twenty-four hours after the filing 522 of this motion, for a hearing on the motion or that, if I am 523 unable to appear because of hospitalization or a medical 524 condition resulting from the offense alleged in the complaint, a 525 person who can provide information about my need for a temporary 526 protection order must appear before the court in lieu of my 527 appearing in court. I understand that any temporary protection 528 that were the basis of the complaint, under section 3113.31 of 534

(2) The petitioner may attach a document to the form that 543 describes the number, types, and locations of any firearms that 544 the petitioner knows to be in the possession or control of the 545 defendant. 546

(C) (1) As soon as possible after the filing of a motion 547 that requests the issuance of a temporary protection order, but 548 not later than twenty-four hours after the filing of the motion, 549 the court shall conduct a hearing to determine whether to issue 550 the order. The person who requested the order shall appear 551 before the court and provide the court with the information that 552 it requests concerning the basis of the motion. If the person 553 who requested the order is unable to appear and if the court 554 finds that the failure to appear is because of the person's 555 hospitalization or medical condition resulting from the offense 556 alleged in the complaint, another person who is able to provide 557 the court with the information it requests may appear in lieu of 558 the person who requested the order. If the court finds that the 559 safety and protection of the complainant, alleged victim, or any 560 other family or household member of the alleged victim may be 561 impaired by the continued presence of the alleged offender, the 562 court may issue a temporary protection order, as a pretrial 563 condition of release, that contains terms designed to ensure the 564 safety and protection of the complainant, alleged victim, or the 565 family or household member, including a requirement that the 566 alleged offender refrain from entering the residence, school, 567 business, or place of employment of the complainant, alleged 568 victim, or the family or household member. The court may include 569 within a protection order issued under this section a term 570 requiring that the alleged offender not remove, damage, hide, 571 harm, or dispose of any companion animal owned or possessed by 572 the complainant, alleged victim, or any other family or 573 household member of the alleged victim, and may include within 574 the order a term authorizing the complainant, alleged victim, or 575 other family or household member of the alleged victim to remove 576 a companion animal owned by the complainant, alleged victim, or 577 other family or household member from the possession of the 578 alleged offender. 579

(2) (a) If the court issues a temporary protection order 580 that includes a requirement that the alleged offender refrain 581 from entering the residence, school, business, or place of 582 employment of the complainant, the alleged victim, or the family 583 or household member, the order shall state clearly that the 584 order cannot be waived or nullified by an invitation to the 585 alleged offender from the complainant, alleged victim, or family 586 or household member to enter the residence, school, business, or 587 place of employment or by the alleged offender's entry into one 588 of those places otherwise upon the consent of the complainant, 589 alleged victim, or family or household member. 590

(b) Division (C) (2) (a) of this section does not limit any 591 discretion of a court to determine that an alleged offender 592 charged with a violation of section 2919.27 of the Revised Code, 593 with a violation of a municipal ordinance substantially 594 equivalent to that section, or with contempt of court, which 595 charge is based on an alleged violation of a temporary 596 protection order issued under this section, did not commit the 597 violation or was not in contempt of court. 598

(D) (1) Upon the filing of a complaint that alleges a 599 violation of section 2909.06, 2909.07, 2911.12, or 2911.211 of 600 the Revised Code if the alleged victim of the violation was a 601 family or household member at the time of the violation, a 602 violation of a municipal ordinance that is substantially similar 603 to any of those sections if the alleged victim of the violation 604 was a family or household member at the time of the violation, 605 any offense of violence if the alleged victim of the offense was 606 a family or household member at the time of the commission of 607 the offense, or any sexually oriented offense if the alleged 608 victim of the offense was a family or household member at the 609 time of the commission of the offense, the court, upon its own 610 motion, may issue a temporary protection order as a pretrial 611 condition of release if it finds that the safety and protection 612 of the complainant, alleged victim, or other family or household 613 member of the alleged offender may be impaired by the continued 614 presence of the alleged offender. 615

(2) If the court issues a temporary protection order under 616 this section as an ex parte order, it shall conduct, as soon as 617 possible after the issuance of the order, a hearing in the 618 presence of the alleged offender not later than the next day on 619 which the court is scheduled to conduct business after the day 620 on which the alleged offender was arrested or at the time of the 621 appearance of the alleged offender pursuant to summons to 622 determine whether the order should remain in effect, be 623 modified, or be revoked. The hearing shall be conducted under 624 the standards set forth in division (C) of this section. 625

(3) An order issued under this section shall contain only 626 those terms authorized in orders issued under division (C) of 627 this section. 628

(4) If a municipal court or a county court issues a 629 temporary protection order under this section and if, subsequent 630 to the issuance of the order, the alleged offender who is the 631 subject of the order is bound over to the court of common pleas 632 for prosecution of a felony arising out of the same activities 633 as those that were the basis of the complaint upon which the 634 order is based, notwithstanding the fact that the order was 635 issued by a municipal court or county court, the order shall 636 remain in effect, as though it were an order of the court of 637 common pleas, while the charges against the alleged offender are 638 pending in the court of common pleas, for the period of time 639 described in division (E) (2) of this section, and the court of 640 common pleas has exclusive jurisdiction to modify the order 641 issued by the municipal court or county court. This division 642 applies when the alleged offender is bound over to the court of 643 common pleas as a result of the person waiving a preliminary 644 hearing on the felony charge, as a result of the municipal court 645 or county court having determined at a preliminary hearing that 646 there is probable cause to believe that the felony has been 647 committed and that the alleged offender committed it, as a 648 result of the alleged offender having been indicted for the 649 felony, or in any other manner. 650

(E) A temporary protection order that is issued as a 651 pretrial condition of release under this section: 652

(1) Is in addition to, but shall not be construed as a 653 part of, any bail set under Criminal Rule 46; 654

(2) Is effective only until the occurrence of either of 655
the following: 656

(a) The disposition, by the court that issued the order 657 or, in the circumstances described in division (D)(4) of this 658 section, by the court of common pleas to which the alleged 659 offender is bound over for prosecution, of the criminal 660 proceeding arising out of the complaint upon which the order is 661 based; 662

(b) The issuance of a protection order or the approval of 663 a consent agreement, arising out of the same activities as those 664 that were the basis of the complaint upon which the order is 665 based, under section 3113.31 of the Revised Code~~†~~. 666

(3) Shall not be construed as a finding that the alleged 667 offender committed the alleged offense, and shall not be 668 introduced as evidence of the commission of the offense at the 669 trial of the alleged offender on the complaint upon which the order is based. 670 671

(F) A person who meets the criteria for bail under Criminal Rule 46 and who, if required to do so pursuant to that rule, executes or posts bond or deposits cash or securities as bail, shall not be held in custody pending a hearing before the court on a motion requesting a temporary protection order. 672

(G) (1) A copy of any temporary protection order that is issued under this section shall be issued by the court to the complainant, to the alleged victim, to the person who requested the order, to the defendant, and to all law enforcement agencies that have jurisdiction to enforce the order. The court shall direct that a copy of the order be delivered to the defendant on the same day that the order is entered. If a municipal court or a county court issues a temporary protection order under this section and if, subsequent to the issuance of the order, the defendant who is the subject of the order is bound over to the court of common pleas for prosecution as described in division (D) (4) of this section, the municipal court or county court shall direct that a copy of the order be delivered to the court of common pleas to which the defendant is bound over. 677 transfer to the respondent. The proof of transfer shall include 921 the name of the respondent, the date of transfer, and the serial 922 number, make, and model of each transferred firearm. 923

(2) Within forty-eight hours after being served with the 924 court order, the respondent shall do one of the following: 925

(a) File a copy of the proof of transfer with the court 926 that issued the order and an affidavit that all firearms in the 927 respondent's possession or control at the time the respondent 928 was served with the order have been transferred in accordance 929 with this section and that the respondent currently has no 930 firearms in the respondent's possession or control; 931

(b) File an affidavit with the court that issued the order 932 that at the time the respondent was served with the order the 933 respondent had no firearms in the respondent's possession or 934 control and that the respondent currently has no firearms in the 935 respondent's possession or control. 936

(3) (a) Upon the expiration of the court order, the law 937 enforcement agency or federally licensed firearms dealer in 938 possession of the respondent's firearms shall, at the 939 respondent's request, return those firearms to the respondent, 940 unless either of the following applies: 941

(i) The order is extended or another court order described 942 in division (A) (7) of section 2923.13 of the Revised Code is in 943 effect; 944

(ii) The respondent is prohibited from possessing a 945 firearm under state or federal law. 946

(b) Before returning a firearm pursuant to this division, 947 the law enforcement agency or federally licensed firearms dealer 948 may require the respondent to sign a statement that the court 949 order has expired and has not been extended and that the 950 respondent is not prohibited from possessing a firearm under 951 state or federal law. 952

(4) (a) If the respondent is prohibited from possessing a 953 firearm under state or federal law, the respondent shall have 954 sixty days after the expiration of the court order and any 955 extensions to the court order to make one sale to a federally 956 licensed firearms dealer of any transferred firearms in the 957 possession of a law enforcement agency. The law enforcement 958 agency shall transfer possession of the firearms to a federally 959 licensed firearms dealer at the request of the firearms dealer, 960 if the firearms dealer provides the law enforcement agency with 961 a copy of a bill of sale that indicates the respondent has sold 962 the firearms to the firearms dealer. If the law enforcement 963 agency accepts any proceeds from the sale on behalf of the 964 respondent, the law enforcement agency shall transfer the 965 proceeds of the sale to the respondent. 966

(b) If the respondent or a federally licensed firearms 967 dealer does not provide a copy of a bill of sale for the 968 respondent's firearms to the law enforcement agency within sixty 969 days after the expiration of the court order and any extensions 970 to the court order, the firearms shall be considered to be 971 abandoned. The law enforcement agency may establish policies for 972 the disposal of abandoned firearms, provided the policies 973 require that the respondent be notified of the disposal and 974 receive any financial value from the disposal of the firearms. 975

(5) A law enforcement agency or federally licensed 976 firearms dealer may charge a respondent a reasonable fee in 977 connection with the storage of any firearm pursuant to this 978 section. The fee charged by a law enforcement agency shall not 979 exceed the costs associated with taking possession of, storing, 980 and disposing of the firearms. 981

(B) A respondent who recklessly violates the requirements 982 of this section is guilty of a felony of the fifth degree. 983 resides for relief from such prohibition. 994

(2) Division (A) (1) of this section does not apply to a 995 person who has been convicted of or pleaded guilty to a 996 and served, and any release granted under a community control 1005 sanction, post-release control sanction, or parole, any partial 1006 to be investigated and shall raise before the court any 1016 objections to granting relief that the investigation reveals. 1017

(2) "Court" means the domestic relations division of the 1069 have a domestic relations division, or the juvenile division of 1072 the court of common pleas of the county in which the person to 1073 be protected by a protection order issued or a consent agreement 1074 approved under this section resides if the respondent is less 1075 than eighteen years of age. 1076

(3) "Family or household member" means any of the 1077 following: 1078

(a) Any of the following who is residing with or has 1079 living or has lived with the respondent in a common law marital 1094 relationship, who otherwise is cohabiting with the respondent, 1095 years prior to the date of the alleged occurrence of the act in 1097 section 2950.01 of the Revised Code. 1103

(7) "Companion animal" has the same meaning as in section 1104
959.131 of the Revised Code. 1105

(B) The court has jurisdiction over all proceedings under 1106 this section. The petitioner's right to relief under this 1107 section is not affected by the petitioner's leaving the 1108 residence or household to avoid further domestic violence. 1109

(C) ~~(1)~~ A person may seek relief under this section on the 1110 person's own behalf, or any parent or adult household member may 1111 seek relief under this section on behalf of any other family or 1112 household member, by filing a petition with the court. The 1113 petition shall contain or state: 1114

~~(1)~~ ~~(a)~~ An allegation that the respondent engaged in 1115 domestic violence against a family or household member of the 1116 respondent, including a description of the nature and extent of 1117 the domestic violence; 1118

~~(2)~~ ~~(b)~~ The relationship of the respondent to the 1119 petitioner, and to the victim if other than the petitioner; 1120

~~(3)~~ ~~(c)~~ A request for relief under this section. 1121

(2) The petitioner may include a statement in the petition 1122 that describes the number, types, and locations of any firearms 1123 that the petitioner knows to be in the possession or control of 1124 the respondent. 1125

(D) (1) If a person who files a petition pursuant to this 1126 section requests an ex parte order, the court shall hold an ex 1127 parte hearing on the same day that the petition is filed. The 1128 court, for good cause shown at the ex parte hearing, may enter 1129 any temporary orders, with or without bond, including, but not 1130 limited to, an order described in division (E) (1) (a), (b), or 1131 (c) of this section, that the court finds necessary to protect 1132 the family or household member from domestic violence. Immediate 1133 and present danger of domestic violence to the family or 1134 household member constitutes good cause for purposes of this 1135 section. Immediate and present danger includes, but is not 1136 limited to, situations in which the respondent has threatened 1137 the family or household member with bodily harm, in which the 1138 respondent has threatened the family or household member with a 1139 sexually oriented offense, or in which the respondent previously 1140 has been convicted of, pleaded guilty to, or been adjudicated a 1141 delinquent child for an offense that constitutes domestic 1142 violence against the family or household member. 1143

(2) (a) If the court, after an ex parte hearing, issues an 1144 order described in division (E) (1) (b) or (c) of this section, 1145 the court shall schedule a full hearing for a date that is 1146 within seven court days after the ex parte hearing. If any other 1147 type of protection order that is authorized under division (E) 1148 of this section is issued by the court after an ex parte 1149 hearing, the court shall schedule a full hearing for a date that 1150 is within ten court days after the ex parte hearing. The court 1151 shall give the respondent notice of, and an opportunity to be 1152 heard at, the full hearing. The court shall hold the full 1153 hearing on the date scheduled under this division unless the 1154 court grants a continuance of the hearing in accordance with 1155 this division. Under any of the following circumstances or for 1156 any of the following reasons, the court may grant a continuance 1157 of the full hearing to a reasonable time determined by the 1158 court: 1159

(i) Prior to the date scheduled for the full hearing under 1160 this division, the respondent has not been served with the 1161 petition filed pursuant to this section and notice of the full 1162 hearing. 1163

(ii) The parties consent to the continuance. 1164

(iii) The continuance is needed to allow a party to obtain 1165 counsel. 1166

(iv) The continuance is needed for other good cause. 1167

(b) An ex parte order issued under this section does not 1168 expire because of a failure to serve notice of the full hearing 1169 upon the respondent before the date set for the full hearing 1170 under division (D) (2) (a) of this section or because the court 1171 grants a continuance under that division. 1172

(3) If a person who files a petition pursuant to this 1173 section does not request an ex parte order, or if a person 1174 requests an ex parte order but the court does not issue an ex 1175 parte order after an ex parte hearing, the court shall proceed 1176 as in a normal civil action and grant a full hearing on the 1177 matter. 1178

(E) (1) After an ex parte or full hearing, the court may 1179 grant any protection order, with or without bond, or approve any 1180 consent agreement to bring about a cessation of domestic 1181 violence against the family or household members. The order or 1182 agreement may: 1183

(a) Direct the respondent to refrain from abusing or from 1184 committing sexually oriented offenses against the family or 1185 household members; 1186

(b) Grant possession of the residence or household to the 1187 petitioner or other family or household member, to the exclusion 1188 of the respondent, by evicting the respondent, when the 1189 residence or household is owned or leased solely by the 1190 petitioner or other family or household member, or by ordering 1191 the respondent to vacate the premises, when the residence or 1192 household is jointly owned or leased by the respondent, and the 1193 petitioner or other family or household member; 1194

(c) When the respondent has a duty to support the 1195 petitioner or other family or household member living in the 1196 residence or household and the respondent is the sole owner or 1197 lessee of the residence or household, grant possession of the 1198 residence or household to the petitioner or other family or 1199 household member, to the exclusion of the respondent, by 1200 ordering the respondent to vacate the premises, or, in the case 1201 of a consent agreement, allow the respondent to provide 1202 suitable, alternative housing; 1203

(d) Temporarily allocate parental rights and 1204 responsibilities for the care of, or establish temporary 1205 parenting time rights with regard to, minor children, if no 1206 other court has determined, or is determining, the allocation of 1207 parental rights and responsibilities for the minor children or 1208 parenting time rights; 1209

(e) Require the respondent to maintain support, if the 1210 respondent customarily provides for or contributes to the 1211 support of the family or household member, or if the respondent 1212 has a duty to support the petitioner or family or household 1213 member; 1214

(f) Require the respondent, petitioner, victim of domestic 1215 violence, or any combination of those persons, to seek 1216 counseling; 1217

(g) Require the respondent to refrain from entering the residence, school, business, or place of employment of the petitioner or family or household member;

(h) Grant other relief that the court considers equitable and fair, including, but not limited to, ordering the respondent to permit the use of a motor vehicle by the petitioner or other family or household member and the apportionment of household and family personal property;

(i) Require that the respondent not remove, damage, hide, harm, or dispose of any companion animal owned or possessed by the petitioner;

(j) Authorize the petitioner to remove a companion animal owned by the petitioner from the possession of the respondent;

(k) Require a wireless service transfer in accordance with sections 3113.45 to 3113.459 of the Revised Code.

(2) If a protection order has been issued pursuant to this section in a prior action involving the respondent and the petitioner or one or more of the family or household members or victims, the court may include in a protection order that it issues a prohibition against the respondent returning to the residence or household. If it includes a prohibition against the respondent returning to the residence or household in the order, it also shall include in the order provisions of the type described in division (E) (7) of this section. This division does not preclude the court from including in a protection order or consent agreement, in circumstances other than those described in this division, a requirement that the respondent be evicted from or vacate the residence or household or refrain from entering the residence, school, business, or place of employment of the petitioner or a family or household member, and, if the 1247 court includes any requirement of that type in an order or 1248 agreement, the court also shall include in the order provisions 1249 of the type described in division (E) (7) of this section. 1250

(3) (a) Any protection order issued or consent agreement 1251 approved under this section shall be valid until a date certain, 1252 but not later than five years from the date of its issuance or 1253 approval, or not later than the date a respondent who is less 1254 than eighteen years of age attains nineteen years of age, unless 1255 modified or terminated as provided in division (E) (8) of this 1256
section. 1257

(b) Subject to the limitation on the duration of an order 1258 or agreement set forth in division (E) (3) (a) of this section, 1259 any order under division (E) (1) (d) of this section shall 1260 terminate on the date that a court in an action for divorce, 1261 dissolution of marriage, or legal separation brought by the 1262 petitioner or respondent issues an order allocating parental 1263 rights and responsibilities for the care of children or on the 1264 date that a juvenile court in an action brought by the 1265 petitioner or respondent issues an order awarding legal custody 1266 of minor children. Subject to the limitation on the duration of 1267 an order or agreement set forth in division (E) (3) (a) of this 1268 section, any order under division (E) (1) (e) of this section 1269 shall terminate on the date that a court in an action for 1270 divorce, dissolution of marriage, or legal separation brought by 1271 the petitioner or respondent issues a support order or on the 1272
date that a juvenile court in an action brought by the 1273 petitioner or respondent issues a support order. 1274

(c) Any protection order issued or consent agreement 1275 approved pursuant to this section may be renewed in the same 1276 manner as the original order or agreement was issued or 1277 approved. 1278

(4) A court may not issue a protection order that requires 1279 a petitioner to do or to refrain from doing an act that the 1280 court may require a respondent to do or to refrain from doing 1281 under division (E)(1)(a), (b), (c), (d), (e), (g), or (h) of 1282 this section unless all of the following apply: 1283

(a) The respondent files a separate petition for a 1284 protection order in accordance with this section. 1285

(b) The petitioner is served notice of the respondent's 1286 petition at least forty-eight hours before the court holds a 1287 hearing with respect to the respondent's petition, or the 1288 petitioner waives the right to receive this notice. 1289

(c) If the petitioner has requested an ex parte order 1290 pursuant to division (D) of this section, the court does not 1291 delay any hearing required by that division beyond the time 1292 specified in that division in order to consolidate the hearing 1293 with a hearing on the petition filed by the respondent. 1294

(d) After a full hearing at which the respondent presents 1295 evidence in support of the request for a protection order and 1296 the petitioner is afforded an opportunity to defend against that 1297 evidence, the court determines that the petitioner has committed 1298 an act of domestic violence or has violated a temporary 1299 protection order issued pursuant to section 2919.26 of the 1300 Revised Code, that both the petitioner and the respondent acted 1301 primarily as aggressors, and that neither the petitioner nor the 1302 respondent acted primarily in self-defense. 1303

(5) No protection order issued or consent agreement 1304 approved under this section shall in any manner affect title to 1305 any real property. 1306

(6) (a) If a petitioner, or the child of a petitioner, who 1307 obtains a protection order or consent agreement pursuant to 1308 division (E) (1) of this section or a temporary protection order 1309 pursuant to section 2919.26 of the Revised Code and is the 1310 subject of a parenting time order issued pursuant to section 1311 3109.051 or 3109.12 of the Revised Code or a visitation or 1312 companionship order issued pursuant to section 3109.051, 1313 3109.11, or 3109.12 of the Revised Code or division (E) (1) (d) of 1314 this section granting parenting time rights to the respondent, 1315 the court may require the public children services agency of the 1316 county in which the court is located to provide supervision of 1317 the respondent's exercise of parenting time or visitation or 1318 companionship rights with respect to the child for a period not 1319 to exceed nine months, if the court makes the following findings 1320 of fact: 1321

(i) The child is in danger from the respondent; 1322

(ii) No other person or agency is available to provide the 1323 supervision. 1324

(b) A court that requires an agency to provide supervision 1325 pursuant to division (E) (6) (a) of this section shall order the 1326 respondent to reimburse the agency for the cost of providing the 1327 supervision, if it determines that the respondent has sufficient 1328 income or resources to pay that cost. 1329

(7) (a) If a protection order issued or consent agreement 1330 approved under this section includes a requirement that the 1331 respondent be evicted from or vacate the residence or household 1332 or refrain from entering the residence, school, business, or 1333 place of employment of the petitioner or a family or household 1334 member, the order or agreement shall state clearly that the 1335 order or agreement cannot be waived or nullified by an 1336 invitation to the respondent from the petitioner or other family 1337 or household member to enter the residence, school, business, or 1338 place of employment or by the respondent's entry into one of 1339 those places otherwise upon the consent of the petitioner or 1340 other family or household member. 1341

(b) Division (E) (7) (a) of this section does not limit any 1342 discretion of a court to determine that a respondent charged 1343 with a violation of section 2919.27 of the Revised Code, with a 1344 violation of a municipal ordinance substantially equivalent to 1345 that section, or with contempt of court, which charge is based 1346 on an alleged violation of a protection order issued or consent 1347 agreement approved under this section, did not commit the 1348 violation or was not in contempt of court. 1349

(8) (a) The court may modify or terminate as provided in 1350 division (E) (8) of this section a protection order or consent 1351 agreement that was issued after a full hearing under this 1352 section. The court that issued the protection order or approved 1353 the consent agreement shall hear a motion for modification or 1354 termination of the protection order or consent agreement 1355 pursuant to division (E) (8) of this section. 1356

(b) Either the petitioner or the respondent of the 1357 original protection order or consent agreement may bring a 1358 motion for modification or termination of a protection order or 1359 consent agreement that was issued or approved after a full 1360 hearing. The court shall require notice of the motion to be made 1361 as provided by the Rules of Civil Procedure. If the petitioner 1362 for the original protection order or consent agreement has 1363 requested that the petitioner's address be kept confidential, 1364 the court shall not disclose the address to the respondent of 1365 the original protection order or consent agreement or any other 1366 person, except as otherwise required by law. The moving party 1367 has the burden of proof to show, by a preponderance of the 1368 evidence, that modification or termination of the protection 1369 order or consent agreement is appropriate because either the 1370 protection order or consent agreement is no longer needed or 1371 because the terms of the original protection order or consent 1372 agreement are no longer appropriate. 1373

(c) In considering whether to modify or terminate a 1374 protection order or consent agreement issued or approved under 1375 this section, the court shall consider all relevant factors, 1376 modified or terminated as provided in division (N) of this 1419

section. 1420

(e) If the respondent moves for modification or 1421

(2) Upon the issuance of a protection order or the 1444 approval of a consent agreement under this section, the court 1445 shall determine whether, as a result of the order, it is 1446 unlawful for the respondent to possess or purchase a firearm 1447 under division (A) (7) of section 2923.13 of the Revised Code or 1448 18 U.S.C. 922(g) (8). If the court determines that the respondent 1449 is prohibited from possessing or purchasing a firearm, the court 1450 shall order the respondent to transfer all firearms in the 1451 consent agreement delivered, each agency shall note on the index 1475 the date and time that it received the order or consent 1476 agreement. 1477

(4) Regardless of whether the petitioner has registered 1478 the order or agreement in the county in which the officer's 1479 premises, if appropriate. 1485

(G) Any proceeding under this section shall be conducted 1486 in accordance with the Rules of Civil Procedure, except that an 1487 order under this section may be obtained with or without bond. 1488
An order issued under this section, other than an ex parte 1489 order, that grants a protection order or approves a consent 1490 agreement, that refuses to grant a protection order or approve a 1491 consent agreement that modifies or terminates a protection order 1492 or consent agreement, or that refuses to modify or terminate a 1493 protection order or consent agreement, is a final, appealable 1494 order. The remedies and procedures provided in this section are 1495 in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other available civil or 1496 criminal remedies. 1497

(H) The filing of proceedings under this section does not 1498 excuse a person from filing any report or giving any notice 1499 required by section 2151.421 of the Revised Code or by any other 1500 law. When a petition under this section alleges domestic 1501 violence against minor children, the court shall report the 1502 fact, or cause reports to be made, to a county, township, or 1503 municipal peace officer under section 2151.421 of the Revised 1504 Code. 1505

(I) Any law enforcement agency that investigates a 1506

this section or in connection with the filing, issuance, 1516 registration, modification, enforcement, dismissal, withdrawal, 1517 or service of a protection order, consent agreement, or witness 1518 subpoena or for obtaining a certified copy of a protection order 1519 or consent agreement. 1520

(2) Regardless of whether a protection order is issued or 1521 a consent agreement is approved pursuant to this section, the 1522 court may assess costs against the respondent in connection with 1523 the filing, issuance, registration, modification, enforcement, 1524 dismissal, withdrawal, or service of a protection order, consent 1525 agreement, or witness subpoena or for obtaining a certified copy 1526 of a protection order or consent agreement. 1527

(K) (1) The court shall comply with Chapters 3119., 3121., 1528 3123., and 3125. of the Revised Code when it makes or modifies 1529 modified under this section on or after December 31, 1986, is 1533 found in contempt of court for failure to make support payments 1534 under the order, the court that makes the finding, in addition 1535 to any other penalty or remedy imposed, shall assess all court 1536 costs arising out of the contempt proceeding against the person 1537 and require the person to pay any reasonable attorney's fees of 1538 any adverse party, as determined by the court, that arose in 1539 relation to the act of contempt. 1540

a consent agreement approved under this section is subject to 1542 the following sanctions: 1543

(a) Criminal prosecution or a delinquent child proceeding 1544 for a violation of section 2919.27 of the Revised Code, if the 1545 violation of the protection order or consent agreement 1546 constitutes a violation of that section; 1547

(b) Punishment for contempt of court. 1548

(2) The punishment of a person for contempt of court for 1549 violation of a protection order issued or a consent agreement 1550 approved under this section does not bar criminal prosecution of 1551 the person or a delinquent child proceeding concerning the 1552 person for a violation of section 2919.27 of the Revised Code. 1553 However, a person punished for contempt of court is entitled to 1554 credit for the punishment imposed upon conviction of or 1555 adjudication as a delinquent child for a violation of that 1556 section, and a person convicted of or adjudicated a delinquent 1557 child for a violation of that section shall not subsequently be 1558 punished for contempt of court arising out of the same activity. 1559

(M) In all stages of a proceeding under this section, a 1560 petitioner may be accompanied by a victim advocate. 1561

(N) (1) A petitioner who obtains a protection order or 1562 consent agreement under this section or a temporary protection 1563 order under section 2919.26 of the Revised Code may provide 1564 notice of the issuance or approval of the order or agreement to 1565 the judicial and law enforcement officials in any county other 1566 than the county in which the order is issued or the agreement is 1567 approved by registering that order or agreement in the other 1568 county pursuant to division (N) (2) of this section and filing a 1569 copy of the registered order or registered agreement with a law 1570 enforcement agency in the other county in accordance with that 1571 division. A person who obtains a protection order issued by a 1572 court of another state may provide notice of the issuance of the 1573 order to the judicial and law enforcement officials in any 1574 county of this state by registering the order in that county 1575 pursuant to section 2919.272 of the Revised Code and filing a 1576 copy of the registered order with a law enforcement agency in 1577 that county. 1578

(2) A petitioner may register a temporary protection 1579 order, protection order, or consent agreement in a county other 1580 than the county in which the court that issued the order or 1581 approved the agreement is located in the following manner: 1582

(a) The petitioner shall obtain a certified copy of the 1583 order or agreement from the clerk of the court that issued the 1584 order or approved the agreement and present that certified copy 1585 to the clerk of the court of common pleas or the clerk of a 1586 municipal court or county court in the county in which the order 1587 or agreement is to be registered. 1588

(b) Upon accepting the certified copy of the order or 1589 agreement for registration, the clerk of the court of common 1590 pleas, municipal court, or county court shall place an 1591 the petitioner a copy of the order or agreement that bears that 1593 proof of registration. 1594

(3) The clerk of each court of common pleas, the clerk of 1595 each municipal court, and the clerk of each county court shall 1596 maintain a registry of certified copies of temporary protection 1597 orders, protection orders, or consent agreements that have been 1598 issued or approved by courts in other counties and that have 1599 been registered with the clerk. 1600

(O) Nothing in this section prohibits the domestic relations division of a court of common pleas in counties that have a domestic relations division or a court of common pleas in counties that do not have a domestic relations division from designating a minor child as a protected party on a protection order or consent agreement.

Section 2. That existing sections 2903.13, 2919.25, 2919.26, 2923.13, 2923.14, and 3113.31 of the Revised Code are hereby repealed.

Section 3. The General Assembly, applying the principle stated in division (B) of section 1.52 of the Revised Code that amendments are to be harmonized if reasonably capable of simultaneous operation, finds that the following sections, presented in this act as composites of the sections as amended by the acts indicated, are the resulting versions of the sections in effect prior to the effective date of the sections as presented in this act:
